You are advised that according to the law, the court may at any time revoke your probation for cause or modify the terms or conditions of your probation. You are subject to arrest by a probation officer with or without a warrant if the officer has cause to believe that you have violated a condition of your probation. Sentence Appeal. If you are ordered to serve more than two years in jail for a felony offense, or more than 120 days in jail for a misdemeanor offense, you may appeal the sentence to the court of appeals on the ground that it is excessive.

If the sentence was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement that provided for a minimum sentence, you may appeal as excessive only the part of the sentence that is longer than the minimum sentence by more than two years for a felony offense, or by more than 120 days for a misdemeanor offense.

Your appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of distribution stated below. If you are sentenced to serve two years or less in jail for a felony offense, or 120 days or less in jail for a misdemeanor offense, you may seek review of your sentence by filing a petition for review in the Supreme Court. To do this, you must file a notice of intent to file a petition for sentence review within 10 days of the date of distribution stated below. WAIVER OF INDICTMENT

I, the above-named defendant, am charged with violation of:

 _____ (offense)
 _____.

I am fully advised of the following:

1. Under the Alaska Constitution, I have a right to have the above charge presented to a Grand Jury for review.
2. A Grand Jury consists of 12 to 18 citizens who hear evidence presented by the District Attorney through witnesses.
3. During the presentation of a case before the Grand Jury, only the District Attorney, a clerk, and the witness are present.
4. The Grand Jury can return an indictment against me only upon the concurrence of a majority of the total number of jurors and when all the evidence taken together, if unexplained or uncontradicted, would warrant a conviction of me at trial.
5. If the Grand Jury declines to indict me after reviewing the evidence, the effect is to dismiss the charge which was before them; and that charge may not be again submitted to the Grand Jury without a court order.
6. The effect of an indictment being returned by the Grand Jury is to place the charges against me before the Superior Court.
7. The effect of a Waiver of Indictment by me will be to allow the charges against me to be placed before the Superior Court without the Grand Jury having reviewed the evidence in my case.

I have received a copy of the Complaint or Information charging me with the offense referred to above and therefore I am familiar with the nature of the charges against me.

I have been advised by my attorney and the court of the nature of the charges against me and my right to indictment by Grand Jury. I have taken into consideration the information listed above. I hereby waive in open court prosecution by indictment and consent to prosecution in Superior Court by information rather than indictment.

FINDING

After having personally inquired of the defendant in open court and of defendant's attorney, and having advised the defendant as to defendant's right to indictment by Grand Jury, I find that the defendant has made a voluntary, intelligent, and knowing waiver of defendant's right to indictment by Grand Jury.
