COMPLAINT BY MOTHER TO ESTABLISH PATERNITY

with without request for a parenting plan & child support

[Paternity – Determine Person is Biological Father]

Instructions: Use this form if you want the court to establish Defendant as the legal father of the children named below. If the court establishes paternity, you can ask the Alaska Office of Health Analytics and Vital Records to put the father's name on the children's birth certificate. If someone other than Defendant is named on the birth certificates, or you were married to another person when you got pregnant or gave birth, use Complaint by Mother to Disestablish and Establish Paternity, DR-510 instead.

If you are having trouble finding the biological father or getting the biological father to take a DNA test, the Child Support Enforcement Division (CSED) may be able to help you, at no cost. Call CSED at (907) 269-6900 or (800) 478-3300.

1. Who is involved in this case?

a. Plaintiff: I am the biological mother of each child in this case:

Name of Child	Date of Birth

b. Defendant: The person I believe is the biological father of each child named above.

2. Who is named as the father on the children's birth certificates?

No father is named.

Defendant is named. [If Defendant is named on the birth certificates, then Defendant is already established as the legal father. You do not need this court case.]

Other: _____
If you answered "Other" because someone other than Defendant is named on the birth certificate, use [Complaint by Mother to Disestablish and Establish Paternity, DR-510 instead of this form.]

9. Other things I want the court to know about this case:

- More pages are attached. [Only write on one side of the page.]

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

I REQUEST THAT THE COURT:

1. Enter a final order (decree) establishing Defendant as the biological and legal father, and if needed, enter a child support order.
2. Order that Defendant's name be added to the children's birth certificates.
[IMPORTANT: If the court orders this as part of the decree, you must send a certified copy of the decree to the Alaska Office of Health Analytics and Vital Records to change the birth certificates.]
3. Order a parenting plan and child support as requested on the documents that I am attaching to this complaint.
4. Other: _____
5. Anything else the court finds appropriate.

Note to Defendant

You have 20 days to respond to this complaint. If you do not respond, Plaintiff can ask the judge to decide without hearing from you in a default hearing. Learn about forms and how to respond at the Family Law Self-Help Center Website (ak-courts.info/family) or call the Family Law Self-Help Center at (907) 264-0851 or (866) 279-0851.

Information about Filing and Serving Your Documents & Next Steps

(You do not need to file this page with the court)

File Your Documents with Your Local Court and Serve Defendant

1. Make 2 copies of your forms: 1 copy for your own records and 1 copy for the other party. You can bring the original to your local court or mail it. Or contact your local court to see if they accept email or TrueFile filings (ak-courts.info/dir).
2. There is a fee to file a case. If you cannot afford the fee, you can ask the court to waive it. Call the Family Law Self-Help Center at (907) 264-0851 or (866) 279-0851, or use Exemption from Payment of Fees, TF-920.
3. When you open the case, the court clerk will give you 2 copies of a “Summons” and usually a “Standing Order” that contains important information about your case. 1 copy is for you; 1 copy is for Defendant.
4. You must give Defendant a copy of
 - everything you filed with the court,
 - the summons, and
 - the standing order.

This is called “service.” When you first start a case, you must serve Defendant one of these ways:

- Send the documents by certified mail with restricted delivery and return receipt. Make sure you pay for certified mail, restricted delivery, and return receipt so that only Defendant can sign for the mail and the post office sends the green postcard back to you after Defendant signs it.
- Hire a process server. Fill out the form Service Instructions, CIV-615. Give this form to the process server so they will send you the proof of service after they serve the other party.

To learn more, read How to Serve a Summons, CIV-106.

Future Service

After the case is open, you can serve all other documents by regular first-class mail or by hand-delivery. If Defendant files anything in court that says they agree to service by email, you can email them. If they have a lawyer, you must email, mail, or hand-deliver the copy to their lawyer. If you use the court’s TrueFiling system (ak-courts.info/truefile), it will serve any party who also uses TrueFiling.

What to Expect after You Start Your Case and Serve a Copy on Defendant

Defendant has 20 days to respond to your complaint. Day 1 is the day after:

- Defendant signed the green postcard from the certified mail with restricted delivery and return receipt, or
- The process server delivered your documents and the court papers. This date is on the process server’s proof of service.

Defendant’s response to what you wrote in the complaint is called an “answer.” After Defendant files their answer, the court will set a hearing and send you a notice with the date, time, and location.

If Defendant does not file and serve an answer, you can ask the judge to decide the case without hearing from Defendant. Read about Filing for Default (ak-courts.info/default).
