6. How do I fill out the Certificate of Divorce?

This form goes to the Bureau of Vital Statistics after the divorce is final.

- Complete the "Parties' Information" section, boxes 9-32.
- If you are filling out by hand, use black ink and use your neatest handwriting. If you make a mistake, start over with a blank form. This form will be sent to the Health Analytics and Vital Records office after the divorce is granted, and they will not accept forms with cross-outs or other corrections on them.

- Important: You must submit this form to the court so that Health Analytics and Vital Records can record your divorce. If your divorce is not recorded, you may not be able to remarry, apply for a new license, or receive certain benefits.

7. What do I do with the completed forms?

Read How to Start a Contested Case, SHC-181, ak-courts.info/shc181.

File your documents. File all of your completed forms with the court. You must use the court's electronic filing platform, TrueFiling, unless you are exempt. You are exempt if one of these applies:

- You are in a jail or correctional facility.
- You have a disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).
- You do not have safe access to a computer, internet, or email.
- You cannot access the help you need to use TrueFiling.
- You have a language barrier or are Limited English Proficient.

You do not need to prove you are exempt. If you are exempt and you choose not to use TrueFiling, check and sign the text box at the end of your Complaint form.

8. What happens next?

The court will set a hearing to schedule the trial date after the other side files an answer. Usually, the purposes of the hearings are to discuss the trial date and trial deadlines and determine if the parties want a formal or informal trial.
