REQUEST TO EXTEND A PROTECTIVE ORDER
(ONE PETITIONER)

[This form should be used if you wish to extend an existing domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking protective order. As part of your extension request, you may also request to modify the terms of your existing protective order.]

Note: This request, by itself, does not extend the protective order. All parties must follow the existing protective order while it is in effect until a judge extends it in writing. The court will set a hearing with at least 10 days' notice to both parties and will decide whether an extension is necessary to protect you. If your current order expires before the hearing, there will not be a protective order in place until the court extends it at the hearing or until you request a new order based on a new domestic violence incident. If you fail to appear for a hearing about this request, the judge may deny your request. Learn more about resources and safety planning at <http://courts.alaska.gov/shc/shcdv.htm>.

I am the  petitioner  respondent in this case. I ask the court to extend the long-term protective order issued in this case.

I request the terms of the protective order:  remain the same.  are modified as follows:
