REQUEST FOR COURT-SPONSORED PARENTING PLAN DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Parent A Parent B Both parents Other: _____

ask(s) the court to order the parents to participate in the court's free dispute resolution program to try to draft a parenting plan agreement.

[Answer the questions below. If domestic violence has occurred between the parents, it may limit the types of dispute resolution options available under Alaska law.]

- 1. Do you and the other parent have at least one child under age 18 and need help agreeing on a parenting plan? Yes No
- 2. Has there ever been a domestic violence protective order granted by a court between the parents (an Alaska order or an order issued in another state and filed in Alaska)?
 - a. No
 - b. Yes, and it is still in effect. Case number: _____
Expires: _____
 - c. Yes, and it expired. Case number: _____
- 3. Is there a history of domestic violence between the parents? No Yes, and the victim(s) agreed to dispute resolution and signed below.

The person requesting dispute resolution must sign below. If both parents are requesting dispute resolution, then both must sign. If there was domestic violence, or any protective orders, the victims must sign below to show they agree to participate. If only one parent signs this request, the other parent can respond using [Response to Request for Court-Sponsored Parenting Plan Dispute Resolution, MED-406.]
