

Instructions for Requesting Records

The Alaska Court System cannot research a case over the phone. You may request copies or information from a court case file using the form on page 2 (on the back of this page).

Please complete the entire records request form. It is important that every section be filled out. If information is missing from your request it may take longer to process.

The processing time for a normal request is about two weeks. Large requests, or requests that require research, may take longer to process. Prepayment may be required.

Confidential Records. Only parties to a case are allowed to receive copies of confidential case files. If you are requesting confidential records, you must present photo ID to the court clerk when making your request. In addition to cases that have been made confidential by a judge, the following case types are confidential: Adoption, Child in Need of Aid (CINA), Conservatorship, Delinquency, Guardianship, Minor Settlement, and Mental Commitment (Hospitalization).

Requests should be submitted to the clerk of court where the case was filed. You may submit your request in person or by mail to the court. A complete list of Alaska Court System contact information is available at: <http://courts.alaska.gov/courtdir/index.htm>.

Please be aware that if you do not provide a case number, an hourly research fee will be added to your invoice. To find a case number for a case from 1990 to the current date, please visit our website at <https://records.courts.alaska.gov>.
