INSTRUCTIONS

(Please read carefully to avoid processing delays)

- Your marriage license application must be filed and issued to you BEFORE your marriage.
- Your license will be available for pickup or can be mailed to you 3 business days after a completed application is received.
- The Marriage License Application fee is $60.00 ($70.00 for mailed-out licenses), payable by check or money order and must be submitted with the application.

1. Each party must complete their section of the marriage license application.
2. Application requirements are as follows:
  - Both parties must present a government-issued photo ID. (examples include: driver's license, state-issued ID, passport, military ID, or Tribal/BIA card).
  - Both parties must be sworn in by a Licensing Officer or Notary and sign this application IN PERSON in their presence. This can be done at the Juneau or Anchorage Vital Records Office, at any Alaska Courthouse, by an Alaska postmaster or by a notary in your home jurisdiction.
  - Both parties must be 18 years of age or older for a license to be issued without consent from parents or legal guardian (exception: applicant who is under the age of 18 and a member of the US armed forces on active duty).
If either party is 16 or 17 years old, they must provide a court order and their legal parents or guardians must provide written consent. A birth certificate must be provided to show age of the party(ies) under 18 years. If one party is 16 or 17, there may not be more than a 3-year age difference between parties.
  - No one younger than 16 years may be married in the State of Alaska.
  - The number of previous marriages and the dates the marriages ended must be completed. If you were divorced within the past 60 days, you must provide a copy of your divorce, annulment, or dissolution decree / order.
3. Submit the completed application and fee to the office closest to where the ceremony occurs.
  - In person in Juneau or Anchorage: Vital Records Office
  - In person in other locations: an Alaska Court \(locations: www.courts.alaska.gov/courtdir/index.htm\)
  - By mail: Vital Records Office in Juneau or Anchorage (see address at top of page)
4. The application is valid for one year, however once the license is issued and picked up, it is only valid for 90 days. If you do not get married within that time frame, the license will be void and you must reapply, including another $60.00 fee.
5. After the marriage has taken place and the license has been signed by all parties (party A, party B, the marriage officiant, and one witness), you must return the original license to a Vital Records Office (in person or by mail) to be registered with the State of Alaska.
6. Your formal CERTIFICATE OF MARRIAGE which documents that your marriage has been registered with the State (needed for insurance purposes and name changes, etc.) is an additional $30.00. This document may be ordered after you return your original Marriage License. The request form is available on our website: www.vitalrecords.alaska.gov
