ALASKA CONSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH RESOURCES

Materials Prepared Before the Constitutional Convention for Use by the Delegates

The Act establishing the Alaska Statehood Committee authorized the Committee to “have ready, in preparation for the Constitutional Convention, fully detailed information and analyses for use by the Convention in preparing the required draft of a constitution for Alaska, to the end that the people may have the opportunity of passing upon an entirely sound and thoroughly prepared document.” Ch. 108, § 3(c), SLA 1949.

Constitutional studies, prepared on behalf of the Alaska Statehood Committee for the Alaska Constitutional Convention convened November 8, 1955 (1955).

Call #: KFA 1601 1955.A28 (Reading Room and Microfilm)

The Alaska Statehood Committee contracted with the Public Administration Service, a non-profit organization that provided research, analysis, and advice to government organizations, to prepare a 3-volume set of twelve staff reports (often cited by paper number, e.g., Staff Paper IX) on behalf of the Alaska Statehood Committee for use by the delegates to the Alaska Constitutional Convention. The reports cover topics such as the function of state constitutions within the American political system; the place of states within the federal system; principles of constitutional government, including separation of powers, civil rights and liberties; and the major elements of state constitutions and constitutional structure.
