IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT AT ANCHORAGE

716 WEST FOURTH AVENUE, LLC,

Appellant,

v.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL,

Appellee.

CASE NO. 3AN-16-10821CI

STIPULATION

The parties, through their counsel of record, stipulate and request that that the court allow the administrative record in this matter to be treated as the excerpt of record required by Appellate Rule 210(c).

The parties make this request because, in this case, nearly all of the administrative record would have to be included in the excerpt to comply with the requirements of Rule 210(c). That would result in adding an additional set of page numbers to a record that already has been page-numbered and assembled. It would not make review by the court any easier, it would take significant time and expense, and it would risk confusion with two sets of page numbers assigned each document.
