Nome Trial Court Temporary Closure to Relocate to New Facility

Nome, Alaska (September 11, 2020) – The Nome Trial Court will be closed September 24, 25 and 28, 2020 to accommodate its move to a new permanent facility located at 306 W 5th Ave. During this time, a judicial officer will handle all arraignments and emergency matters. Please send all new case filings to 2NOMailbox@akcourts.us. Arraignments will be held at 1:30 pm. To listen to arraignment proceedings, please call 1800-768-2983 passcode 4435217# at that time.

If you need assistance while the Nome Court is closed, please call the Unalakleet Court at 624-3015 or visit the Alaska Court Systems website for case information, jury information, and case filing resources at www.courts.alaska.gov.

The Nome Trial Court will reopen at 306 W. 5th Ave, east entrance, on Tuesday, September 29, 2020. COVID-19 precautions continue to impact court operations. Hearings will continue to be held telephonically, and there will be a computer, phone, and drop box set up outside the clerk's office for customers coming to the court location.

We appreciate your continued patience during this period of transition as we work together to promote health and safety while providing the Nome community public access to court services.
