

My art piece has flags from around the world joined together as one nation. In my drawing this illustrates diversity. In addition, there is the scale of fairness and justice. I also added the peace symbol to my drawing. All these mean that no matter where you come from, how you look, what religious beliefs you have or social background, we all deserve to be treated equally. Not just in the justice system but also in our society.

Tiffany Markovich

Third Prize, Category 6-8

Grade 8, Romig Middle School