Rule 6. Interpreter Services in Court Proceedings for Persons with Limited English Proficiency.

(a) Construction. This rule shall be liberally construed and applied to promote meaningful participation in court proceedings, consistent with due process, by persons with limited English proficiency. A limited English proficient (LEP) person is someone who speaks a language other than English as his or her primary language and has a limited ability to read, speak, or understand English.

ALASKA COURT RULES

(b) Court System Responsibility to Pay for Interpreter Services. The court system will provide and pay for the necessary services of an interpreter during proceedings in court for all parties, witnesses, and victims with limited English proficiency in all cases and for other individuals with limited English proficiency as follows:

(1) for the parents or guardian of the juvenile in delinquency proceedings, and

(2) for the tribal representatives, foster parents, out-of-home care providers, or grandparents in child-in-need-of-aid proceedings.

(c) Method of Delivery. Interpreter services may be provided in-person, telephonically, or by video depending on the availability of qualified interpreters, the court location, and the length of the proceeding.

(d) Court-Provided Second Interpreter at Hearings or Trial. To prevent interpreter fatigue and ensure effective communication, the court system may, in its discretion, provide and pay for the services of a second, qualified interpreter at any hearing or trial that exceeds two hours. A court-provided “proceedings” interpreter may, upon request, interpret confidential communications between an LEP individual and his or her attorney during the course of a hearing or trial. If an LEP party desires a separate “table” interpreter to sit at counsel table to facilitate confidential attorney-client communications, the party must provide and pay for that interpreter.

(e) Amount the Court System Pays. When the court system provides and pays for interpreter services, the rate or fee paid is set by Administrative Bulletin 82.

(Adopted by SCO 412 effective July 1, 1980; amended by SCO 469 effective June 1, 1981; by SCO 816 effective August 1, 1987; by SCO 1134 effective July 15, 1993; by SCO 1182 effective July 15, 1995; by SCO 1280 effective January 15, 1998; by SCO 1390 effective nunc pro tunc to January 1, 2000; by SCO 1503 effective nunc pro tunc to January 1, 2003; rescinded and readopted by SCO 1796 effective July 1, 2013; amended by SCO 1817 effective November 22, 2013; and by SCO 1896 effective October 15, 2016)

Notes: This rule does not limit a judicial officer’s authority under Civil Rule 95 to order a party to pay the costs of interpreter services as a sanction for violation of Civil Rule 11.

An individual who is eligible to receive a court-provided interpreter under this rule should request interpreter services as early as possible in the case by filing a notice or otherwise notifying the local clerk of court. The court system’s Interpreter Services Coordinator is available to assist any agency, attorney, or litigant to locate a qualified language interpreter or translator to provide language services remotely or on-site. The Interpreter Services Coordinator can be reached at interpeters@akcourts.us.

Rule 6.1. Interpreter Services in Court Proceedings for Persons with a Physical Disability.

(a) Court Proceedings. The court system will provide and pay for interpreter services during proceedings in court in civil and criminal cases where a party or witness is deaf, mute, or otherwise unable to effectively communicate because of a physical disability.

(b) Amount the Court System Pays. The rate or fee the court system pays for interpreter services is set by Administrative Bulletin 82.

(Adopted by SCO 1796 effective July 1, 2013)

Note: This rule does not limit a judicial officer’s authority under Civil Rule 95 to order a party to pay the costs of interpreter services as a sanction for violation of Civil Rule 11.

Rule 7. Witness Fees.

(a) Amount. A witness attending before any court, referee, master, grand jury or coroner’s jury or upon a deposition in a discovery proceeding, whose testimony is necessary and material to the action, shall receive a witness fee of $12.50 if such attendance, including the time necessarily occupied in traveling from the witness’ residence to the place of attendance and returning from that place, requires not more than three consecutive hours. If such attendance requires more than three consecutive hours, the witness shall receive a witness fee of $25.00 for each day of attendance. Any witness who attends at a point so far removed from the witness’ residence as to necessarily prohibit return thereto from day-to-day shall receive per diem at the rate allowed for state employees.

(b) Travel Expense. Every witness who is required to travel in excess of 30 miles from the witness’ residence is entitled to receive reimbursement for round-trip travel from the witness’ residence to the place of court at the rate allowed for state employees.

(c) Expert Witnesses. Recovery of costs for a witness called to testify as an expert is limited to the time when the expert is employed and testifying and shall not exceed $150.00 per hour, except as otherwise provided in these rules. A party may not recover costs for more than three independent expert witnesses as to the same issue in any given case, unless the judge permits recovery for an additional number of expert witnesses. For purposes of this rule, an independent expert is a witness who is retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony in the case or whose duties as an employee of the party regularly involve giving expert testimony.

(d) Payment. Witness fees, travel expense and per diem shall be paid from the appropriation to the judiciary only for witnesses called or appointed by the court or in coroner’s cases. In all other cases, these fees and expenses shall be paid by the parties, and in civil cases, shall be taxed and collected as other costs.

ALASKA COURT RULES

(e) Demand of Payment in Advance in Civil Cases. Witnesses in civil cases, except when subpoenaed by the state, a municipality, a borough, a city, or an officer or agency thereof, may demand the payment in advance of their travel expense and their per diem fee for one day, and when so demanded shall not be compelled to attend until the allowances are paid.

(f) Parties and Attorneys as Witnesses. A party to the action or hearing, if a witness, is entitled to receive the same witness fees, per diem and travel expense as any other witness. A person appearing as an attorney for any party to an action or hearing, who also testifies as a witness therein, is not entitled to receive any witness fee, per diem or travel expenses.

(Adopted by SCO 412 effective July 1, 1980; amended by SCO 559 effective May 2, 1983; by SCO 791 effective March 15, 1987; by SCO 1153 effective July 15, 1994; by SCO 1172 effective July 15, 1995; and by SCO 1492 effective October 15, 2002)

Rule 8. Physicians' Fees.

Physicians shall be allowed a reasonable fee for performing the following services:

(a) An examination under order of court pursuant to AS 47.30.700 or such other examination as may be ordered by the court upon its own motion;

(b) Giving medical expert testimony at a hearing when ordered by the court in relation to such examination or in relation to an autopsy or post mortem examination ordered pursuant to AS 12.65.020.

Fees for such services shall be paid from funds appropriated to the judiciary. Claims for compensation shall be submitted for approval to the judicial officer ordering the examination or testimony, subject to final approval by the administrative director. In all other cases, physicians' fees shall be paid by the requesting party or parties.

The administrative director may authorize a fee under (a) of this rule to be computed other than on an hourly basis, provided that such computation results in a fee that is substantially the same as if computed hourly.

(Adopted by SCO 412 effective July 1, 1980; amended by SCO 813 effective August 1, 1987)

Rule 8.1. Health Care Provider Expert Advisory Panel Fees.

(a) Compensation by Court. Expert advisory panel members appointed pursuant to AS 09.55.536 will be reimbursed by the court for the reasonable expenses of transportation outside the panel member's city of residence which are necessary for the preparation of the panel's report. Panel members will be reimbursed for other expenses of preparing their report at the rate of $18.00 per hour, not to exceed $90.00 per day. If the panel member's reasonable and necessary actual expenses other than transportation expenses exceed this hourly rate, the panel member will be compensated for reasonable and necessary actual expenses in lieu of the hourly compensation. Panel members are not entitled to compensation from the court for any professional fees for service on the panel.

(b) Request for Compensation. In order to qualify for reimbursement, a panel member must submit to the trial court within thirty days after the submission of the expert report a written request for reimbursement which specifies by date and by nature of the item any transportation expenses, time spent preparing the report, and, if reimbursement for actual expenses is sought, all expenses. Claims for reimbursement must be submitted for approval to the assigned judge and are subject to final approval by the administrative director.

(Adopted by SCO 814 effective August 1, 1987)

Rule 9. Fee Schedule.

The fees specified in this rule shall be charged for the services designated herein:

(a) In the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals:

According to Section 8(a) of the Act, the new AS 18.65.865 has the effect of amending Administrative Rule 9 by providing that filing fees may not be charged in any action seeking only the relief provided in AS 18.65.850-860.

Note: Chapter 71 SLA 2012 (SB 86) added new sections to AS 13.26 relating to the protection of vulnerable adults, effective July 1, 2012. According to section 48(b) of the Act, AS 13.26.209(h), enacted by section 10, has the effect of amending Alaska Rule of Administration 9, by requiring that filing fees may not be charged for a petition for an ex parte protective order under AS 13.26.207, for an application for a temporary order under AS 13.26.208, or for modification of a protective order under AS 13.26.209(a).

(a) The determination of a person's indigency for purposes of exemption from payment of fees under Rule 9(f)(1) shall be made by the court in which the action is filed as soon as practicable after the date the action is filed, but in no event more than 60 days after that date.

(b) A person who requests an exemption of fees shall file an indigency statement on a form prescribed by the administrative director of courts, except that a person represented by an attorney furnished by the Alaska Legal Services Corporation, the Alaska Pro Bono Program, the Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Pro Bono Program, or the Alaska Native Justice Center need not file such a form.

(c) If a person files the documents required by subparagraph (b) of this rule, or is represented by an attorney furnished by the Alaska Legal Services Corporation, the Alaska Pro Bono Program, the Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Pro Bono Program, or the Alaska Native Justice Center, the clerk or magistrate judge shall accept the pleadings for filing without payment of the filing fee.

(d) If the court finds that the person is not indigent, it shall order the person to pay the filing fee. The court may continue the action until such payment is made. If payment is not made within 30 days after notice of the order, the court may dismiss the action.

According to section 14 of the act, this amendment has the effect of changing Administrative Rule 10(e) "by expanding the definition of 'litigation against the state' so that it has the meaning given in AS 09.19.100 as amended by sec. 3 of this Act."

person for whom the appointment is made is financially eligible for an appointment at public expense.

(b) Appointments under AS 18.85.100 (a) (Public Defender Agency).

(1) Appointment Procedure.

(A) When a person is entitled to counsel under AS 18.85.100(a), appointments shall be made first to the public defender agency. If the agency files a motion to withdraw on the grounds that it cannot represent the person because of a conflict of interest, if the parties stipulate on the record that the agency has a conflict of interest, or if the court on its own motion finds an obvious conflict of interest, the court accepting such motion or stipulation or making such finding shall appoint the office of public advocacy to provide counsel.

(B) The court may appoint an attorney in a case in which the office of public advocacy has been appointed only if:

(i) The office of public advocacy has shown that it is unable to provide counsel either by staff or by contract; and

(ii) The office of public advocacy has provided the court with the name or names of the attorneys who shall be appointed in that particular case.

The office of public advocacy shall be responsible for compensating any attorney appointed under this subparagraph.

(C) All claims for payment for services performed after July 1, 1984, by attorneys appointed by the court shall be submitted to the director of the office of public advocacy, under such procedures as the director may prescribe. The director shall approve, modify or disapprove the claim.

(2) Determination of Indigency. Determination of indigency or financial inability for appointments under paragraph (b) of this rule must be made in accordance with the provisions of Criminal Rule 39.

(3) Assessment of Costs. When counsel is appointed for a child when the child's parents or custodian are financially able but refuse to employ counsel to assist the child, the court may, when appropriate, assess as costs against the parents, guardian or custodian the cost to the state of providing counsel.

(c) Appointments under AS 44.21.410 (Office of Public Advocacy).

(1) Appointment Procedure. When a person qualifies for counsel or guardian ad litem services under AS 44.21.410, the court shall appoint the office of public advocacy. The court in its order appointing the office of public advocacy must state the authority for the appointment. In the case of a discretionary appointment, the court must give specific reasons for the appointment. In the case of a guardian ad litem appointment, the court shall limit the appointment to the pendency of the proceedings affecting the child's welfare, shall outline the guardian ad litem's responsibilities, and shall limit the guardian's authority to those matters related to the guardian's effective representation of the minor's best interests.

(2) Indigency Determination. For appointments of the office of public advocacy under this rule, other than an appointment required because of a conflict of interest with the public defender agency, a person is indigent if the person's income does not exceed the maximum annual income level established to determine eligibility for representation by the Alaska Legal Services Corporation. A person whose income exceeds the maximum amount for legal services representation may be determined indigent only if a judge makes a specific finding of indigency on the record, taking into account the funds necessary for the person to maintain employment, to provide shelter, and to clothe, feed and care for the person and the person's immediate family, the person's outstanding contractual indebtedness, the person's ability to afford representation based on the particular matter and the complexity of the case, the costs of living and attorneys fees in different regions of the state, and any liquid assets which could be counted as income.

(3) Assessment of Costs. In an appointment under AS 25.24.310 for representation of a minor, the court shall enter an order for costs, fees and disbursements in favor of the state. If the appointment is made in a proceeding in which custody, support or visitation is an issue, the court shall, if possible, avoid assigning costs to only one party by ordering that costs of the minor's legal representative or guardian services be paid from property belonging to both parents before a division of property is made.

(d) Withdrawal from Unauthorized Appointment. The public defender agency and the office of public advocacy shall accept appointments only in those cases for which the basis for the appointment is clearly authorized. If the agency or office determines that the basis for an appointment is not clearly authorized, the agency or office shall file with the court a motion to withdraw from the appointment.

(e) Other Appointments at Public Expense.

(1) Constitutionally Required Appointments.

If the court determines that counsel, or a guardian ad litem, or other representative should be appointed for an indigent person, and further determines that the appointment is not authorized by AS 18.85.100(a) or AS 44.21.410, but in the opinion of the court is required by law or rule, the court shall appoint an attorney who is a member of the Alaska Bar Association to provide the required services. Other persons may be appointed to provide required services to the extent permissible by law.

(A) Appointments may be made in the following types of cases without prior approval of the administrative director, but only in cases in which the required services would not otherwise be provided by a public agency:

(i) Attorneys for biological parents in adoption cases to the extent required by the Indian Child Welfare Act (25 USC 1901 et seq.),

(2) Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. When the opposing party is financially unable to pay for such representation, the court shall appoint a member of the Alaska Bar Association to represent an absent service person pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 App. U.S.C. § 521). Prior approval of the administrative director is not required.

(3) List of Private Attorneys.

(A) The presiding judge shall designate the area court administrator and a clerk of court for each court location in the district to keep and make available to the court in each location lists of attorneys or other persons eligible to receive court appointments under paragraph (e) of this rule.

(B) The attorney lists will first be compiled from names of persons who have volunteered to accept these appointments. If there are insufficient volunteers, the court will make appointments on a rotation basis from lists of eligible attorneys obtained from the Alaska Bar Association. The court may, in departing from a strict rotation basis, take into account the complexity of the case and the level of experience required by counsel.

(C) Lists of other persons available to provide required services will be compiled from names of qualified persons who have indicated their willingness to provide the required services.

(4) Appointment Orders. When the court appoints an attorney or other person under paragraph (e) of this rule, the clerk of the court from which the appointment was made shall immediately send a copy of the appointment order to the administrative director.

(B) Attorneys will be compensated at the rate of $75.00 per hour; provided, that total compensation for any case will not exceed $1,000.00 without prior approval of the administrative director. An attorney who is appointed to serve as a guardian ad litem will be compensated at the attorney rate.

(C) A person other than an attorney who is appointed to provide services will receive compensation as described below.

(i) A person appointed as a court visitor or guardian ad litem will be compensated at the rate that the Office of Public Advocacy would pay under contract for the same services; and

(ii) A person appointed to provide other required services will be compensated at a rate not to exceed $25.00 per hour.

The total compensation for any case covered by this subparagraph will not exceed $300.00 without prior approval of the administrative director.

(D) The costs of necessary interpreter services will be reimbursed at the rate that the court system would pay under Administrative Bulletin 82 for the same quality services.

(E) Extraordinary expenses will be reimbursed only if prior authority has been obtained from the administrative director, upon recommendation by the assigned trial judge. Extraordinary expenses exceeding $2,500.00 may be authorized only in extremely complex cases. In this paragraph, "extraordinary expenses" are limited to expenses for:

(i) Investigation;

(ii) Expert witnesses; and

(iii) Necessary travel and per diem, which may not exceed the rate authorized for state employees.

(F) If necessary to prevent manifest injustice, the administrative director may authorize payment of compensation or expenses in excess of the amounts allowed under this rule.

(6) Recovery of Costs. When counsel is appointed for a person in a case described in subparagraph 12(e)(1), the court shall order the person, or if the person is a child, the person's parents, guardian or custodian, to pay the costs incurred by the court in providing representation. Before appointing counsel, the court shall advise the person that the person will be ordered to repay the state for the cost of appointed counsel and shall advise the person of the maximum amount that the person will be required to repay. The court shall order the person to apply for permanent fund dividends every year in which the person qualifies for a dividend until the cost is paid in full. The clerk shall determine the cost of representation, and shall mail to the person's address of record a notice informing the person that judgment will be entered against the person for the actual cost of representation or for $500, whichever is less. The person may oppose entry of the judgment by filing a written opposition within 10 days after the date shown in the clerk's certificate of distribution on the notice. The opposition shall specifically set out the grounds for opposing entry of judgment. The clerk shall enter judgment against the person for the amount shown in the notice if the person does not oppose entry of the judgment within the 10 days. If the person files a timely opposition, the court may set the matter for a hearing and shall have authority to enter the judgment. Criminal Rule 39(c)(1) and (c)(2) shall apply to judgments entered under this section.

(f) Responsibilities of Appointed Counsel.

(1) An attorney appointed to represent an indigent person must advise the court if the attorney learns of a change in the person's financial status that would make the person financially ineligible for appointed counsel.

(2) An attorney appointed to represent an indigent person must move to withdraw if the attorney reasonably believes that the person has made a material misrepresentation of the person's financial status to the court. A material misrepresentation is a misrepresentation of facts that would make the person financially ineligible for appointed counsel. The attorney is not required to disclose to the court the existence or nature of the misrepresentation unless disclosure is necessary to prevent the person from fraudulently securing the services of appointed counsel.

Dissent to SCO 1088:

RABINOWITZ, Chief Justice, with whom COMPTON, Justice, joins, dissenting:

I am not persuaded that either existing Criminal Rule 39, or Appellate Rule 209, requires amendment. I think it can be safely predicted that these amendments will have a chilling effect on an indigent defendant's obtaining the services of appointed counsel as well as on an indigent defendant's decision whether or not to seek review or to appeal.

Note: AS 18.85.170(4) defines "indigent person" for purposes of public defender appointments as "a person who, at the time need is determined, does not have sufficient assets, credit, or other means to provide for payment of an attorney and all other necessary expenses of representation without depriving the party or the party's dependents of food, clothing, or shelter and who has not disposed of any assets since the commission of the offense with the intent or for the purpose of establishing eligibility for assistance under this chapter."

Rule 14. Jury Service Fees.

(a) Jurors who appear for service will be paid at the rate established by the administrative director by administrative bulletin.

(b) Jurors who drive more than 30 miles (one way) for jury service will be reimbursed for mileage at the rate allowed to state employees. If jurors drive together, only one mileage reimbursement will be paid. Air and ferry transportation will be arranged by the court.

(c) A juror who cannot return home at the end of the trial day will receive lodging and meals at court system expense. The reimbursement rate for lodging and meals will be established by administrative bulletin.

(d) Because a juror who is employed by the State of Alaska continues to be paid by the employer, the court will not pay the juror for jury service. The juror is eligible to be reimbursed for travel under subsections (b) and (c).

(e) A juror will not be paid or reimbursed for travel if the juror mistakenly appears for jury service (1) because the juror failed to call in as instructed, or (2) after having been notified that the juror was excused or deferred.

Rule 15. Jury Selection and Service.

(a) Administration. The administrative director of the courts is responsible for the management of the jury system and shall prescribe policies and procedures for efficient and effective jury management.

(b) Statewide Master Jury List. By November 30 of each year, the administrative director will prepare a statewide master list of prospective jurors in Alaska.

(c) Local Master Lists.

ALASKA COURT RULES

(1) Creation of Local Lists. Using the statewide master list, the administrative director will create a local master jury list for each court. The local master jury list will contain the names of all prospective jurors who live in the communities and areas assigned to that court as provided below.

(2) Community Assignments. The community in which a court is located will be assigned to that court. Other areas within a 50-mile radius of that court will also be assigned to that court except as follows:

(A) communities and areas located within 50 miles of more than one court will be assigned to the court in the same venue district;

(B) communities and areas located more than 50 miles from any court will remain unassigned unless the presiding judge assigns the community or area to a court; and

(C) no community or area will be assigned to more than one court.

(3) Alternative Assignments. Prospective trial jurors will be selected from all locations assigned to a court under paragraph (c)(2) unless an alternative assignment is authorized by the presiding judge. The presiding judge will forward any alternative assignments to the administrative director by October 1 each year.

(d) Term Lists, Summonses, and Questionnaires. For each court, there is a term of service specified in subsection (k), during which prospective jurors must be available to serve. Using the local master list, the clerk will prepare a term list that includes as many prospective jurors as are needed to be available for the term. A summons will be mailed to each prospective juror on the term list along with instructions for completing a questionnaire to determine if the prospective juror is qualified to serve. The summons may be sent by regular mail. Qualification questionnaires may be completed online or returned to the court by mail.

(e) Juror Deferrals.

(1) 10-Month Limit. Pursuant to AS 09.20.035, jury service may not be deferred for more than 10 months from the date the original term of service was scheduled to begin. If a juror requests a deferral beyond the 10-month limit, the request will be considered a request for excusal under paragraph (f)(1).

(2) Deferral as a Matter of Right. Before a person's term of service begins, the person may defer jury service once without providing a reason if the person agrees to another term of service beginning no later than 10 months from the date the original term of service was scheduled to begin. Courts may authorize additional deferrals as a matter of right within the 10-month limit.

(3) No Deferral Allowed. Persons summoned to serve a one-year term may not defer their service, but may request short-term excusals under paragraph (f)(1).

(4) Deferral after Term of Service Begins. After a person's term of service has begun, the person may request that the remaining term of service be deferred or that the person be temporarily excused under paragraph (f)(1). If the remaining term of service is deferred, the juror may be assigned to a new term within the 10-month limit, but only for the period of time unserved in the original term.

(5) Partial Deferral for Shift Workers. If a person's work schedule makes the person unavailable to serve a portion of every term, the jury clerk may defer that portion of service to a new term. The person may not be required to serve longer than the original term of service except that a person serving on a jury must continue to serve until discharged by the trial judge.

(6) Failure to Appear for Deferred Service. If a person has deferred jury service until the last available term within the 10-month limit and then fails to appear, the judicial officer may excuse the person for good cause, excuse the person and reassign the person to the next available term of service outside the 10-month limit, or impose a sanction authorized by law. A person who is reassigned to a new term of service under this paragraph ordinarily will not be reassigned again but may be excused.

(f) Juror Excusals.

(1) Temporary Excusals.

(A) Temporary Excusals by Judicial Officers for Hardship.

A judicial officer may temporarily excuse a person from jury service if it is shown that the person's health, the health or proper care of the person's family, a physical or mental disability, or other substantial hardship makes it necessary for the person to be excused. Depending on the length of the hardship, the excusal may be either:

(i) a short-term excusal during the term of service, or

(ii) a long-term excusal for one year from the first day of the term of service for which the person was summoned.

(B) Temporary Excusals by Clerk.

(i) Excusal for Failure to Meet Statutory Qualifications. If a person's response to the qualification questionnaire indicates that the person is not qualified for jury service under AS 09.20.010 or 09.20.020, the clerk will excuse the person from service after verifying the disqualification. If the reason for disqualification is that the person is not of sound mind or in possession of the person's natural faculties, the person will be excused only if the person has a court-appointed guardian or if a licensed physician, psychologist, nurse practitioner, or physician's assistant verifies in writing that the person is unable to serve as a juror for medical reasons. If a person is excused because the person recently served on a jury, the length of the excusal is specified in paragraph (3) below. All other excusals under this provision will be for one year from the first day of the term of service for which the person was summoned.

ALASKA COURT RULES

(ii) Excusal of Judicial Officers (AS 09.20.030). Upon a judicial officer's request, the clerk will excuse the judicial officer from jury service for one year from the first day of the term of service for which the judicial officer was summoned.

(iii) Excusal for Hardship. A clerk may temporarily excuse a person from jury service for hardship to the extent authorized by administrative bulletin.

(2) Permanent Excusals.

Upon request, the clerk will permanently excuse a person from all future jury service if the person:

(A) is over age 70, or

(B) is permanently unable to serve as a juror for medical reasons, including physical or mental disability, if verified in writing by a licensed physician, psychologist, nurse practitioner, or physician's assistant.

(3) Length of Excusal after Jury Service. If a person has appeared for jury service in state or federal court in Alaska, the person is not required to serve again as a juror for one year after the end of the person's term of service. In a court with a local master jury list that includes over 50,000 people, the person will be excused for two years unless the administrative director determines that there are insufficient jurors on the local master jury list to accommodate the number of trials at the court location. If the jury service was in federal court, the term of service will be the term of service of the summoning state court rather than that of the federal court.

(4) Exclusions List. The administrative director will maintain a list of deceased and permanently excused persons to ensure that these persons are excluded from the statewide master jury list.

(g) Notice of Juror Status. After determining whether the person is qualified to serve and whether the person is eligible to be deferred or excused, the court will send the person a service reminder, deferral notice, or excusal notice.

(h) Selection of Prospective Trial Jurors.

(1) The clerk will eliminate from the term list the names of persons who are not qualified or who have been deferred or excused. All remaining persons must call in during the term as directed.

(2) Each week, based on the number of expected trials, the clerk will direct an appropriate number of prospective jurors to appear for service. The clerk will assign these prospective jurors to trial panels. A trial panel consists of prospective jurors who will be sent to the courtroom for possible inclusion on a trial jury.

(3) If a trial judge determines that the selection area defined in subsection (c) will not provide a trial jury which is a truly representative cross-section of the appropriate community, the trial judge may designate alternate or additional areas from which the trial panel will be selected.

(i) Trial Jury.

(1) A trial jury consists of those prospective jurors selected from the trial panel to hear a trial.

(2) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties and approved by the trial judge, a trial jury shall consist of 12 persons for the superior court and six persons for the district court and for inquests and presumptive death hearings.

(3) The clerk shall select from the trial panel a number of names sufficient to comprise a trial jury and alternate jurors if the court decides alternate jurors are needed. The clerk shall select the names either by using a computer-generated random list or another method of random selection.

(4) Prospective trial jurors shall be examined, challenged, and sworn as provided in Civil Rule 47 or Criminal Rule 24.

(j) Juror Privacy.

(1) Court Use Only. The following materials are for internal court use only: the statewide master jury list, local master jury lists, local term lists, and qualification questionnaires.

(2) Limited to Parties. Trial questionnaires and trial panel lists are confidential. These items, along with the dates of birth of individuals on the trial panel list, will be provided to the parties and counsel of record for use by the parties, their attorneys, and agents of their attorneys only in connection with jury selection in the case for which the questionnaires and lists were prepared.

(3) No Disclosure. The parties, their attorneys, and agents of their attorneys shall not disclose or use the trial questionnaires, trial panel lists, or any compiled list of persons selected to serve on a jury except as permitted by this rule.

(4) Selection Hearing Records. If jurors are questioned in private, the electronic record and log notes related to that questioning are confidential. Otherwise, the electronic record and log notes from jury selection are public. Juror names must never be recorded in the log notes. Instead, juror names should only be recorded on the confidential form used to document juror selection.

(5) Attendance Records. The court may issue a certificate of attendance to a juror or the juror's employer. Any other record of juror attendance is confidential.

(k) Term of Service.

(1) Term of service is the period during which prospective jurors must be available to serve as jurors. During that period, the prospective jurors may be required to call in or appear for service.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by the administrative director, the term of service for a court is based on the size of that court's local master jury list as shown in the chart below. Any change in a court's term of service must be approved by both the presiding judge and the administrative director. All modified terms of service will be published in an administrative bulletin.

SIZE OF LOCAL MASTER JURY LIST	TERM OF SERVICE
Under 2,000 people	1 calendar year
2,000 to 7,000 people	3 consecutive calendar months per jury year unless interrupted by a deferral
7,000 to 99,999 people	1 calendar month per jury year unless interrupted by a deferral
100,000 or more people	1 calendar week per jury year

(3) Maximum Length of Actual Service. No person will be required to appear for jury service more than 30 days per year, except that a person serving on a jury must continue to serve until discharged by the trial judge. Calling in without appearing does not count as a day of service.

Note: Chapter 104 SLA 04 (HB 353) exempts teachers from jury service if they are teaching at a school that is designated as failing to make adequate yearly progress under P.L. 107-110. According to Section 2 of the Act, this has the effect of changing Administrative Rule 15(k) by establishing an additional cause for exemption from jury service. [In October 2006, SCO 1622 altered the subsections so that Administrative Rule 15(k), referred to in this Note, is now Administrative Rule 15(l).]

In addition, a judicial officer is unavailable for weekend or holiday duty if the judicial officer is on leave either the day before or after the weekend or holiday. A judicial officer is not unavailable for weekend or holiday duty only because the judicial officer is absent from the court building.

(4) A deputy magistrate who is not a clerk of court may perform magistrate duties only if there is no deputy magistrate at the court location who is a clerk of court or if the deputy magistrate who is a clerk of court is performing other judicial duties or is not at the court building.

(5) The limitations on performance of deputy magistrate duties in (e)(1)–(4) do not apply to a deputy magistrate who is performing deputy magistrate duties while being observed by a training judge.

A clerk of court appointed deputy magistrate is not entitled to upward reclassification if the deputy magistrate duties have previously been considered by the personnel office in the classification of the position.

(2) Compensation for a deputy magistrate who is exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act will be $100.00 for each holiday, Saturday, or Sunday of on-call duty.

Rule 23. Appointment of Retired Justices or Judges Pro Tempore—Compensation—Expenses.

(a) Appointment Pro Tempore.

(1) The chief justice, or another justice designated by the chief justice, may by special assignment appoint a retired justice of the supreme court or a retired judge of the court of appeals, the superior court, or the district court to sit pro tempore as a senior justice or judge in any court of this state where such assignment is deemed necessary for the efficient administration of justice.

(2) Pro tempore appointments may be made for one or more cases or for a specified period of time up to two years, except that a pro tempore judge or justice may complete a trial or appeal in progress at the conclusion of the appointment. A trial is deemed to be completed and a trial judge's appointment to a particular case terminates upon expiration of the time for filing an appeal. An appeal is deemed to be completed and an appellate judge's appointment to a particular case terminates upon expiration of the time for filing a petition for rehearing or, if a petition for rehearing is filed, upon entry of the order or opinion that disposes of the petition. Appointments may be renewed.

(b) Eligibility. Any judge who has reached mandatory retirement age or who has otherwise voluntarily retired is eligible for pro tempore appointment, with such judge's consent, subject to the provisions of the Judicial Canons, that are applicable to Senior Judges, Application Part B. A judge or justice voluntarily retired for incapacity remains ineligible unless or until a licensed physician finds that he or she is able to efficiently perform judicial duties during such period of incapacity. Any judge rejected on retention or removed from office by the supreme court pursuant to an investigation and recommendation of the Judicial Conduct Commission is ineligible for pro tempore appointment until such time as and if such judge is subsequently nominated and reappointed to the bench.

(c) Judicial Performance Evaluation. Every two years, the chief justice shall review the performance during the prior two-year period of all retired judges and justices who have served pro tempore. Such review shall be based upon (1) an evaluation of the performance of such justices and judges, to be conducted by the Alaska Judicial Council, which evaluation shall include a survey of the members of the bar in those judicial districts where such justices and judges have served pro tempore during the evaluation period; and (2) formal performance evaluations conducted by the presiding judges under whom such retired justices or judges have served. At the conclusion of such review, the chief justice shall determine the eligibility of such justices and judges to continue to serve pro tempore.

(d) Compensation. A retired justice or judge is entitled to receive compensation for judicial service pro tempore at the rate of $500 per day for any day during which the justice or judge served for four hours or more, and $250 per day for any day during which the justice or judge served less than four hours. The annual compensation for pro tempore service may not exceed the difference between the retired justice's or judge's annual retirement pay and the current annual base salary of a justice or judge of the court from which the justice or judge retired. The retired justice or judge is eligible to receive health insurance coverage under the active employee plan as permitted under the statutes and regulations that govern participation in that plan. The retired justice or judge is not entitled to personal, annual, or sick leave benefits, and acceptance of an appointment pro tempore acts as a waiver of any claim to such benefits. For an appointment of over 90 consecutive days, such leave may be granted at the discretion of the administrative director upon confirmation by the chief justice.

(e) Additional Service Credit. A retired justice or judge who has not accrued the maximum service credit for retirement benefits under AS 22.25.020 is entitled to receive additional service credit for each day of pro tempore service until the maximum is reached.

(f) Private Arbitration and Mediation. If a retired judge acts as a private arbitrator or mediator, the judge must comply with the following rules to remain eligible for pro tempore appointment:

(1) The judge shall refrain from soliciting or accepting employment as an arbitrator or mediator from a lawyer or party who is currently appearing in a case assigned to the judge.

(2) The judge shall disqualify himself or herself from sitting as a pro tem judge in a case if the judge has previously served as an arbitrator or mediator in the same matter. This disqualification may be waived under Section 3F of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(3) The judge shall disqualify himself or herself from sitting as a pro tem judge in a case if the judge is currently serving or scheduled to serve as an arbitrator or mediator for a lawyer or party in the case. This disqualification may be waived under Section 3F of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(4) If within two years prior to the filing of a case assigned to a pro tem judge the judge has served as an arbitrator or mediator for a lawyer or party in that case, the judge shall disclose that fact on the record and disqualify himself or herself from sitting as a pro tem judge in that case. Disclosure must be made under this paragraph regardless of the amount of compensation that the judge received from the arbitration or mediation. This disqualification may be waived under Section 3F of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(5) The judge shall refrain from accepting employment as an arbitrator or mediator from a lawyer or party who has appeared in a case assigned to the judge within the last six months.

Rule 24. Assignment of Judicial Officers.

(a) Assignments Within Judicial Districts. Assignment of a judicial officer from the court location of the judicial officer's residence to locations within the same judicial district shall be made by the presiding judge of the judicial district or by the presiding judge's designee. In making such assignments, due regard shall be had of the status of accumulated calendars of the courts in the district to the end that judicial officers are assigned to such courts as needed in order to keep the calendars current.

(b) Temporary Assignments in Other Judicial Districts.

(1) When the volume of judicial business in the superior or district court in any judicial district warrants the temporary assignment thereto of one or more judicial officers from another judicial district, the presiding judge in the judicial district requiring such temporary assignment shall so advise the administrative director, giving details as to the reasons for the assignment, the length of time and the location of the temporary assignment.

(2) The administrative director shall thereupon determine the availability of judicial officers in other judicial districts and make such assignments as may be necessary.

(c) Assignment of Appellate Judicial Officers.

(1) The chief justice may assign an individual justice of the supreme court or a judge of the court of appeals, with the consent of the justice or judge, to serve pro tempore as a judge of the superior court or a district court in any judicial district of the state under the same circumstances as the administrative director may assign a judge under paragraph (b) of this rule.

(2) Death or Incapacity.

(A) If the chief justice dies, or is incapacitated, the most senior member of the supreme court becomes acting chief justice.

(B) If all members of the supreme court die or are incapacitated, the chief judge of the court of appeals becomes the acting chief justice and may appoint up to four justices to serve pro tempore to create a functioning supreme court of not more than five members.

(C) If the chief judge of the court of appeals is unable to act as chief justice within the meaning of subpart (B), the next most senior member of the court of appeals becomes the chief justice for purposes of that subpart. If no member of the court of appeals is able to act as chief justice, the most senior presiding judge who is also a superior court judge becomes the acting chief justice for the purposes of subpart (B).

(d) Assignments of Active Judges for Pro Tempore Appellate Service. The chief justice, or another justice whom the chief justice designates, may assign an individual justice of the supreme court or an individual judge of the superior or district court to serve pro tempore as a judge of the court of appeals. The chief justice, or another justice whom the chief justice designates, may assign an individual judge of the court of appeals, the superior court or the district court to serve pro tempore as a justice of the supreme court.

(e) Assignments of Active Judges for Other Pro Tempore Service. The chief justice, another justice whom the chief justice designates, or the presiding judge upon entry of an order of delegation by the chief justice, may assign an individual judge of the district court to serve pro tempore as a judge of the superior court. When a superior court judge hears a matter that is pending in the district court, that judge sits as a district court judge, and a specific assignment to the district court is not required.

(f) Scope and Duration of Assignment.

(1) A temporary assignment of an individual justice or judge under this rule shall be for specific cases or types of cases or proceedings; for general caseloads in a specific geographic location as necessary to ensure completion of a travel calendar; and for general caseloads as necessary to ensure continued judicial service during either the extended absence of a sitting judge or a judicial vacancy.

(2) A temporary assignment may not exceed 180 days in duration absent specific authorization by the chief justice; however a judge who is assigned pro tem on a specific case may continue to preside in that case beyond the expiration of the temporary assignment order.

(3) A single temporary assignment of a judicial officer to another judicial district may not exceed 90 days, unless the judicial officer consents to the additional assignment. Assignments in excess of 90 days or any assignment made without the consent of the assigned judicial officer may be made only by special order of the chief justice.

(g) Recommendations. The administrative director and the presiding judge in each judicial district shall, after consideration of the state of the superior and district court dockets from time to time, submit joint recommendations to the supreme court as to methods of improving the administration of justice in such courts.

(h) Definitions. In this rule, "judicial officer" means a superior court judge, district court judge, or magistrate judge.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this rule, no person may possess a weapon on the premises of any court facility, or in the portion of any other building occupied by the court system, unless the weapon is to be used as evidence in a court proceeding. The term weapon includes firearms, knives, and chemical agents such as mace and pepper spray. This prohibition does not apply to:

(1) a peace officer;

(2) a private uniformed security guard employed by a financial institution or private security service who is transporting money or other valuables;

(3) a private security guard under contract with the court system to provide security services within a court facility who possesses a weapon authorized under the contract;

(5) a person who has written authorization from the administrative director to possess a weapon on court premises. This authorization will be given only upon a showing of good cause and only for a specified period of time;

(6) court system employees, who may possess on the premises of any court facility, or in the portion of any other building occupied by the court system: (a) small knives or multi-tools (like Swiss Army-type or Leatherman-type tools) provided that any knife blade may not exceed 4 inches in length; and (b) small chemical agent canisters for personal safety purposes; or

A valid Alaska Concealed Handgun Permit issued by the Department of Public Safety will satisfy the requirement of a certificate. The certificate or Alaska Concealed Handgun Permit must be obtained within five years prior to the date of the judicial officer's notification to the administrative director that the officer intends to bring a handgun onto court system premises. The administrative director will issue a letter of approval to the judicial officer unless there is good cause to withhold approval. The administrative director may withdraw approval to possess a handgun on court premises for

(2) The administrative director may advise the supervisor of the Alaska State Trooper/Judicial Services unit or the chief of the police department that provides court security at each court location of the names of the judicial officers who are approved to possess handguns on court premises. The administrative director will request that this information be kept confidential and disseminated only to those law enforcement personnel who need to know that a judicial officer may be armed.

(3) For each judicial officer who notifies and receives authorization from the administrative director to possess a handgun on court premises, the court system will provide a handgun safe, which shall be permanently secured in the judicial officer's chambers. The judicial officer must keep the handgun and ammunition secure at all times while on court premises: the handgun and ammunition must be secured in the handgun safe or in the judicial officer's locked vehicle at all times when the judicial officer is not carrying the handgun securely on his or her person.

(4) In the event that law enforcement personnel respond to a law enforcement or court security incident on court premises and make contact with an armed judicial officer, the judicial officer shall notify the law enforcement officer as soon as safely practicable that the judicial officer is armed; if requested by the law enforcement officer, the judicial officer shall surrender his or her handgun to the law enforcement officer or comply with other lawful directions given by the law enforcement officer.

(d) Weapons to be used as evidence in court proceedings must be marked and prepared as directed by the administrative director by administrative bulletin. Each presiding judge may prescribe procedures for courts within that judge's district requiring prior notification to designated court personnel before weapons to be used as evidence may be brought onto court premises.

Rule 28. Judicial Vacations and Judicial Leave.

(a) Vacation Leave. Each supreme court justice, court of appeals judge, and superior court judge shall be entitled to an annual vacation of not more than 30 working days. It shall be taken at such time or times as may be prescribed by the chief justice of the supreme court, the chief judge of the court of appeals, or the presiding judge of the appropriate judicial district.

(1) Accrual of Leave. Vacation time not taken in any calendar year may be accumulated. However, subject to the exception in paragraph (a)(2) of this rule, no more than 15 working days' vacation time may be accumulated in any one year, and no judge may carry over more than 30 working days' unused vacation time in the aggregate. Annual vacation time accrues as of January 1st of each year except for the year during which a justice or judge is appointed or retires. During the year of appointment, resignation, or retirement, annual vacation leave accrues at the rate of 2.5 days per month of service. Annual vacation time accrued but not taken at the time of resignation, retirement, or death is forfeited.

(2) Extraordinary Hardship Exception. Subject to the written approval of the administrative director, a justice or judge may accumulate up to 30 working days' vacation time in any one year, and may carry over up to 60 working days' unused vacation time in the aggregate, if the justice or judge (A) establishes a case of extraordinary hardship that prevented the justice or judge from taking at least 15 annual vacation days in a particular year, and (B) presents a plan for using the accumulated leave during the upcoming year to the administrative director. The administrative director may approve a case of extraordinary hardship for a particular justice or judge no more often than once every three years.

(b) Sick Leave. Each supreme court justice, court of appeals judge, and superior court judge shall be entitled to sick leave with respect to any period of illness necessitating absence from his or her judicial duties, which sick leave shall not be charged against his or her vacation time. Maternity leave is counted as sick leave but is limited to 9 weeks absent extenuating medical necessity. Paternity leave is available as sick leave only to the extent medical disability of mother or child requires presence of father.

(c) Leave Without Pay. Supreme court justices, court of appeals judges, and judges from the superior and district courts may be granted leave without pay to the same extent and upon the same terms as other court system employees. Up to 5 working days in any calendar year may be granted at the discretion of the chief justice, chief judge, or presiding judge of the appropriate court. Leave without pay in excess of 5 days must be approved by the administrative director upon recommendation of the supervising judge or justice.

(d) District Court Judges and Magistrate Judges. Each district court judge and magistrate judge shall be entitled to personal leave in accordance with and limited by the provisions of AS 39.20.200-39.20.330 and the personnel rules. Such leave shall be taken at the time or times prescribed by the presiding judge of the judicial district.

(e) Discretion of Chief Justice, Chief Judge or Presiding Judge. In determining whether a justice or judge shall take a vacation, and the length thereof, the chief justice of the supreme court, the chief judge of the court of appeals, or the presiding judge exercising authority under this rule shall be mindful of the necessity of retention of sufficient judicial manpower in the court or courts under his or her supervision to permit at all times the prompt and effective disposition of the business of such court or courts. Requests for judicial vacations and judicial leave of one week or more must be submitted for approval at least four months in advance.

(f) Administrative Leave. The chief justice of the supreme court may assign one or more justices, judges, or magistrate judges to attend conferences, seminars, or schools to further legal education or professional qualifications. Such assignment shall be made in consultation with the justice, judge, or magistrate judge concerned and with the chief judge of the court of appeals for judges of that court or with the presiding judge of the appropriate judicial district for superior or district court judges and magistrate judges. Travel expenses and per diem may be provided. Administrative leave authorized for such purpose shall not be counted as vacation leave. Nothing in this rule shall prevent a justice, judge, or magistrate judge not so assigned from attending conferences, seminars, or schools for this purpose at his or her own expense during his or her annual vacation. In addition, a justice, judge or magistrate judge not so assigned during a calendar year may receive administrative leave during that year not to exceed five working days to attend conferences, seminars or schools when authorized by the administrative director. The administrative director may authorize such administrative leave in excess of five working days upon a delegation of authority from the chief justice. Administrative leave may not be accrued.

(g) Leave of Absence.

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise, "judge" means any justice of the supreme court, or judge of the court of appeals, the superior court or district court.

(2) A judge who wishes to take a leave of absence shall submit a written application to the supreme court, which shall include a plan outlining the activities he or she will pursue.

(3) In authorizing leaves of absence, the supreme court shall consider whether the activities outlined in the judge's plan are related to the administration of justice. Appropriate activities include formal educational programs for professional self-improvement and teaching at educational institutions. The supreme court shall also consider the benefit the Alaska Court System will derive from the leave of absence and the length of time the judge has served. A leave of absence may be granted only if the supreme court is satisfied that the administration of justice in Alaska will not be adversely affected by granting the leave.

(4) Upon approval of the judge's application, the supreme court shall issue an order granting leave of absence without salary for a period of not more than one year. The order shall state the maximum period of time for which the leave is granted.

(5) Application for a leave of absence is considered a waiver of salary by the applicant for the period of time the judge is absent under the leave granted by the court.

(6) Annual vacation leave or personal leave shall not accrue during a leave of absence.

(7) A leave of absence is an interruption in service for retirement and supplemental benefits purposes. No payment into the retirement or supplemental benefits funds shall be made during such leave of absence, and retirement and supplemental benefits shall not accrue.

(8) If a judge chooses to continue to participate in the State of Alaska group health care and basic life insurance plans during an approved leave of absence, the Alaska Court System will continue to pay the same portion of the costs of the following benefits for the judge and his or her dependents as the Alaska Court System would pay if the judge were not on leave of absence: comprehensive medical, dental, vision and optical, audio, basic life insurance, and accidental death and dismemberment insurance.

(9) A leave of absence does not affect the date at which a judge is subject to approval or rejection in a retention election.

(10) At the termination of the leave of absence, unless he or she sooner dies or resigns, a judge shall resume the duties of his or her office and send written notice of the resumption to the supreme court. The resumption and sending notice thereof constitutes a termination of the leave whether or not the maximum period of time granted has expired.

(a) A magistrate judge may accept for filing a civil or criminal case beyond a magistrate judge's jurisdiction but within the jurisdiction of a district court judge. Such cases will be tried by a superior or district court judge on periodic visits to the area.

(b) A magistrate judge shall immediately notify the presiding judge in writing as soon as any case beyond magistrate judge jurisdiction becomes at issue. Such notification shall contain a brief description of the case, whether jury or non-jury, and an estimate of the length of time required for trial.

(c) If in the course of any preliminary proceedings connected with a case, or during the trial, or after judgment, a magistrate judge determines that he or she is for any reason unqualified to proceed further, he or she shall, without prejudicing the rights of the parties, postpone the proceedings and proceed under (a) and (b) of this rule as if the case were one beyond his or her jurisdiction.

A judge or magistrate judge may retain any compensation paid to him or her by the United States for such services and shall submit to the administrative director such reports concerning this additional activity as may be required by the administrative director. When acting in the capacity of a United States Magistrate, the judge or magistrate judge shall be governed in all respects by the United States law and instructions from federal officials or agencies.

(c) Where judicial officers and employees are employed collaterally as provided in this rule, they shall be held accountable by their superiors in the state judicial system for the efficient performance of such collateral duties.

(d) Upon approval of the administrative director, a magistrate judge may accept appointment as a passport agent by the United States Department of State. The execution fee collected by a magistrate judge or other court employee when executing a passport application must be deposited in the court revenue account.

Rule 35. Electronic Recording Equipment—Official Court Record—Responsibility for Record.

(a) Electronic recording equipment will be installed in all courts for the purpose of recording all official court hearings. Such electronic recordings will constitute the official court record. It will be the responsibility of each judicial officer to require that the electronic recording equipment in court be operated only by a certified operator, or by an individual under the direct supervision of a certified operator during training, in such manner and under such conditions as to ensure the production of a clear and completely understandable record of all proceedings.*

(b) In this rule, the term “certified operator” means a person who has successfully completed a training course in the operation of electronic recording equipment in accordance with standard procedures established by the administrative director of courts.

(c) Before commencing any proceedings required to be recorded, the judicial officer shall be satisfied that the electronic recording equipment is functioning properly. During all proceedings the certified operator shall monitor the electronic recording equipment in accordance with standards established by the administrative director of courts and immediately notify the judicial officer when it is uncertain that the record is clear and completely understandable. Where extraneous noises, interference, poor enunciation or other factors create doubt that the electronic record is clear and completely understandable, it will be the responsibility of the judicial officer to cause the doubtful proceeding to be repeated.

(d) The electronic equipment operator shall be responsible for maintaining detailed, accurate and thoroughly legible log notes which correlate the tape position with described courtroom events. The administrative director of courts shall establish standard procedures for the form, preparation and storage of log notes.

(e) The administrative director of courts shall establish policies, procedures and standards to assure the complete and accurate duplication of the electronic record and shall provide for a uniform safe method of permanent preservation of those original electronic records and log notes which are required to be preserved by the records retention schedule adopted under Administrative Rule 37.

(f) The administrative director may authorize the use of video recording equipment to record any trial where the recordation of such proceedings is feasible. Such video recordings must be accomplished in accordance with procedures established by the administrative director of courts. The video record in conjunction with the electronic audio recording will constitute the official court record.

All other portions of the rule, including the responsibility of the judicial officer to require electronic recording equipment operation in such manner and under such conditions as to ensure the production of a clear and completely understandable record of all proceedings, remain in effect.

Rule 36. Transcripts—Fees—Preparation.

(a) The administrative director shall prescribe standards and procedures for the preparation of transcripts for appeal or other official purposes. All transcripts filed with the Alaska Court System shall be prepared according to these standards and procedures. Each transcript prepared under this rule must be certified and shall be certified only by the person who prepared it.

(b) When a transcript is to be prepared by a person other than a court employee, the court shall provide that person with a copy of the electronic recording of the proceedings to be transcribed, a copy of the log notes, and other information

(b) Each presiding judge or area court administrator shall, upon approval by the administrative director, destroy or provide for the destruction of all pleadings, papers, instruments, depositions, and transcripts filed in any action or proceeding in the superior or district court if all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The action or proceeding is no longer pending or on appeal in any court and all appeal periods have elapsed;

(2) The presiding judge or area court administrator has certified that the destruction of the records is permitted by the Records Retention Schedule;

(3) There is maintained for the use of the public a microphotographic film print or copy of each document required by the Records Retention Schedule to be permanently retained together with a mechanical device by which such film may be conveniently examined;

(4) At least one original negative of each microphotographic film is stored in such a manner and place as will reasonably assure its preservation indefinitely against loss, theft, defacement, or destruction;

(5) At the time of the taking of the microphotographic reproduction, the person under whose supervision the same was taken has attached to or incorporated in the microphotographic reproduction a certification that the copy is a correct copy of the original or of a specified part hereof, as the case may be, the date or dates on which it was taken and the fact that it was taken under that person's direction; and

(6) The records have been reviewed under (d) of this rule and have been determined to have no historical or archival value.

(c) The administrative director shall prescribe the microphotographic processes and procedures to be used under

(b) of this rule and the methods of destruction of records described in (b)(1) through (6) of this rule.

(d) On or before January 15th of each year each judicial officer shall, regarding the cases that were assigned to that judicial officer and closed during the preceding calendar year, provide the administrative director with a list identifying and designating any original case documents or records contained in those cases which have present or potential historical or archival value. The administrative director shall provide for the microphotographing and safekeeping of all original case documents and records so identified.

(e) A photographic reproduction of any of the records described in this rule, the negative or film of which has been certified by the person in charge of such reproduction as a correct copy of the original, shall be received in evidence in all courts in like manner as the original.

(1) Case Records. The following case records and case-related documents are not accessible to the public:

Rule 37.6. Prohibiting Access to Public Case Records.

(a) Limiting Access. Notwithstanding any other rule to the contrary, the court may, by order, limit access to public information in an individual case record by sealing or making confidential the case file, individual documents in the case file, log notes, the audio recording of proceedings in the case, the transcript of proceedings, or portions thereof. A request to limit access may be made by any person affected by the release of the information or on the court's own motion.

(b) Standard. The court may limit public access as described above if the court finds that the public interest in disclosure is outweighed by a legitimate interest in confidentiality, including but not limited to

- (1) risk of injury to individuals;

- (2) individual privacy rights and interests;
- (3) proprietary business information;
- (4) the deliberative process; or
- (5) public safety.

(c) Least Restrictive Alternative. In limiting public access the court must use the least restrictive means that will achieve the purposes of these public access rules and the reasonable needs as set out as the basis for the request, without unduly burdening the court.

(d) Procedure. Any request to limit access must be made in writing to the court and served on all parties to the case unless otherwise ordered. A request to limit access, the response to such a request, and the order ruling on such a request must be written in a manner that does not disclose non-public information, are public records, and shall not themselves be sealed or made confidential.

(Adopted by SCO 1622 effective October 15, 2006)

Note: Administrative Rule 40 requires the clerk of court to list a case on the public case index even though the case file has been sealed or made confidential under this rule. Only the presiding judge of the judicial district has the power to remove a party's name from the public case index, and this action may be taken only in very limited circumstances. See Administrative Rule 40(b) and (c).

The terms "confidential" and "sealed" are defined in Administrative Rule 37.5(c).

Rule 37.7. Obtaining Access to Non-Public Court Records.

(a) Allowing Access to Non-Public Records. The court may, by order, allow access to non-public information in a case or administrative record if the court finds that the requestor's interest in disclosure outweighs the potential harm to the person or interests being protected, including but not limited to:

- (1) risk of injury to individuals;
- (2) individual privacy rights and interests;
- (3) proprietary business information;
- (4) the deliberative process; or
- (5) public safety.

Non-public information includes information designated as confidential or sealed by statute or court rule and public information to which access has been limited under Administrative Rule 37.6. A request to allow access may be made by any person or on the court's own motion as provided in paragraph (b).

ALASKA COURT RULES

(b) Procedure. Any request to allow access must be made in writing to the court and served on all parties to the case unless otherwise ordered. The court shall also require service on other individuals or entities that could be affected by disclosure of the information. A request to allow access, the response to such a request, and the order ruling on such a request must be written in a manner that does not disclose non-public information, are public records, and shall not themselves be sealed or made confidential.

(Adopted by SCO 1622 effective October 15, 2006)

Note: This rule does not apply to bulk or compiled data. Access to bulk and compiled data is governed by Administrative Rule 37.8(b)-(d).

Rule 37.8. Electronic Case Information.

(a) Availability. The following case-related information maintained in the court system's electronic case management systems will not be published on the court system's website or otherwise made available to the public in electronic form:

(1) addresses, phone numbers, and other contact information for parties, witnesses, and third-party custodians;

(2) names, initials, addresses, phone numbers, and other contact and identifying information for victims in criminal cases;

(3) social security numbers;

(4) driver and vehicle license numbers;

(5) account numbers of specific assets, liabilities, accounts, credit cards, and PINs (Personal Identification Numbers);

(6) names, addresses, phone numbers, and other contact information for minor children in domestic relations cases, paternity actions, domestic violence cases, emancipation cases, and minor settlements under Civil Rule 90.2;

(7) juror information;

(8) party names protected under Administrative Rule 40(b) and (c);

(9) information that is confidential or sealed in its written form; and

(10) attorney and other e-mail addresses used by the court to distribute court orders, notices, judgments, and other documents.

(b) Bulk Distribution of Electronic Case Information.

(1) Bulk distribution is defined as the distribution of all or a significant subset of the case information in the court system's electronic case management systems, as is, and without modification or compilation.

(2) Bulk distribution of case information is permitted, unless the information is not publicly available in electronic form under subsection (a) of this rule.

(3) Bulk distribution of imaged case records is not allowed, unless the records are already remotely accessible to the public on the court system's website.

(4) The administrative director may allow bulk distribution of case information that is not publicly available and of publicly available imaged case records for scholarly or governmental purposes. The administrative director shall adopt procedures to protect the security of information and records released under this paragraph.

(c) Distribution of Compiled Information.

(1) Compiled information is defined as information that is derived from the selection, aggregation, or reformulation of case information in the court system's electronic case management systems.

(2) Information routinely compiled by the court may be made available unless the compiled information is privileged or reveals information that is confidential, sealed, or not available to the public under subsection (a) of this rule. A request from a person outside the court system for other compiled information must be approved by the administrative director. The request may be granted if resources are available to compile the information and if it is an appropriate use of public resources, such as for scholarly, governmental, or any other purpose in the public interest.

(d) Fees. The administrative director may establish fees for distribution of information under subsections (b) and (c) of this rule.

(Adopted by SCO 1622 effective October 15, 2006; amended by SCO 1633 effective May 15, 2007; SCO 1757 effective October 14, 2011; and by SCO 1862 effective January 1, 2016)

Note to Administrative Rule 37.8(a)(7): Juror information is also protected by Administrative Rule 15(j).

Rule 38. Reports to Bureau of Vital Statistics—Superior Courts.

(a) Divorce—Annulment—Adoption. Before judgment or decree is entered in any action for divorce or annulment or proceeding for adoption, the court shall require the parties or their counsel to submit such personal particulars and other information necessary to enable the clerk to prepare a record of such divorce, annulment or adoption in accordance with law and the regulations and instructions of the Bureau of Vital Statistics. Every such record shall be prepared by the clerk and filed in the manner and within the time prescribed by law and the regulations and instructions of the Bureau of Vital Statistics.

(b) Change of Name—Delayed Birth Certificate—Legitimation. In the following actions and proceedings, the court shall file with the Bureau of Vital Statistics such reports, information and copies of judgments and orders as may be required and in the manner provided by law and the regulations and instructions of the Bureau:

- (1) A proceeding for change of name;
- (2) A proceeding to establish a public record of the time and place of birth and parentage;
- (3) An action or proceeding for legitimation.

Before entering any order or judgment in any of the above mentioned actions or proceedings, the court shall require the parties or their counsel to submit such information as may be necessary to enable the court to comply with this rule.

(Adopted by SCO 412 effective July 1, 1980)

Rule 39. Vital Statistics.

The presiding judge shall designate district court judges, magistrate judges, or judicial employees to perform all of the functions and duties with respect to the preparation, filing and recording of vital statistics, and the maintaining of records incident thereto, as provided by law and in accordance with the regulations and instructions of the Bureau of Vital Statistics.

(Adopted by SCO 412 effective July 1, 1980; amended by SCO 1829 effective October 15, 2014)

Rule 40. Index to Cases.

(a) The court system shall maintain an index by last name of every party named in every case filed, regardless of whether a party's true name is protected in the public index under paragraphs (b) or (c) of this rule. The index must show the party's name, the case number, the case caption or title, the filing date, the case type, and other information required for that case type by court rule. The index may show the party's date of birth. The court system shall publish a public version of the index, which excludes only

(1) cases designated as confidential or sealed by statute or court rule, unless the index to those cases is public under court rules;

(2) foreign domestic violence protective orders filed under AS 18.66.140;

(3) criminal cases dismissed because the prosecuting authority declined to file a charging document;

(4) criminal cases dismissed for lack of probable cause under Criminal Rule 4(a)(1) or Criminal Rule 5(d);

(5) criminal cases dismissed for an identity error under Criminal Rule 43(d);

(6) criminal cases dismissed because the named defendant is a minor wrongly charged in adult court with an offense within the jurisdiction for delinquency proceedings under AS 47.12.020;

(7) minor offense cases dismissed because the prosecuting authority declined to file a charging document;

(8) minor offense cases dismissed for an identity error under Minor Offense Rule 11(c);

(9) domestic violence protective order cases dismissed at or before the hearing on an ex parte petition because there is not sufficient evidence that the petitioner is a victim of domestic violence as defined by AS 18.66.990(3) or there is not sufficient evidence that the petitioner is a household member as defined by AS 18.66.990(5);

(10) stalking or sexual assault protective order cases dismissed at or before the hearing on an ex parte petition because there is not sufficient evidence that the petitioner is a victim of stalking as defined by AS 11.41.270 or sexual assault as defined in AS 18.66.990(9); and

(11) party names protected under paragraphs (b) or (c) of this rule.

The court system shall continue to list a case on the public index even though the case file has been sealed or made confidential under Administrative Rule 37.6, unless the party names were protected under paragraphs (b) or (c) of this rule. The public index will be available to the public in electronic form except as limited by Administrative Rule 37.8.

(b) The presiding judge of a judicial district may direct the clerk of the court to substitute "Not Published" for a party's true name on the public index if the presiding judge finds that the issues in the case involve matters of a sensitive and highly personal nature, that publication of the name could expose a person to harassment, injury, ridicule, or personal embarrassment, and that protection of the party's name outweighs the public's interest in disclosure and any prejudice to the opposing party. If the presiding judge determines that the true name of more than one party in a case should be protected under this subsection, the parties shall be distinguished by number ("Not Published 1, Not Published 2"). While a request to protect the name is pending before the presiding judge, subsection (d) applies.

(c) The presiding judge of a judicial district may direct the clerk of court to remove a party's name from the public index for a period of five years if the presiding judge finds that publication of the name is likely to result in substantial physical harm to the party or members of the party's household and protection of the party's name outweighs the public's interest in disclosure. After five years, the party's name will appear on the public index unless the presiding judge orders the name protected for an additional period of time, upon another showing that publication of the name is likely to result in substantial physical harm to the party or members of the party's household. While a request to protect the name is pending before the presiding judge, subsection (d) applies.

(d) Unless otherwise ordered, while a request under subsection (b) or (c) is pending,

ALASKA COURT RULES

(1) the party’s name will not be added to the public index if the request is made with or in the filing that initiates the case; and

(2) the party’s name will remain on the public index if the request is made in an existing case.

(Adopted by SCO 1622 effective October 15, 2006; amended by SCO 1633 effective May 15, 2007; by SCO 1822 effective August 1, 2014; by SCO 1844 effective October 29, 2014; and by SCO 1899 effective January 1, 2017)

Editor’s Note: Former Rule 40, Title, was renumbered as current Rule 51, by SCO 1622, effective October 15, 2006.

Note to SCO 1822—adding new paragraphs (a)(3) to (a)(9): This rule change applies to cases that were dismissed or closed prior to its effective date.

Rule 43. Bail Forfeiture Schedules.

(a) Procedure for Adopting Bail Forfeiture Schedule.

The supreme court will consider adopting a bail forfeiture schedule only when so authorized by statute. The agency charged with enforcement under a statute for which a bail forfeiture schedule has been authorized shall forward to the administrative director its recommendations for a proposed schedule, listing offenses by number, describing the offenses, and proposing a bail forfeiture amount. The proposed schedule shall be accompanied by commentary explaining the basis for the agency's recommendation, and by a copy of the proposed citation form. The supreme court shall consider the recommendation, and shall determine whether to adopt a bail forfeiture schedule, and if so, shall determine which offenses are amenable to disposition by bail forfeiture and whether the bail forfeiture amounts are appropriate. The administrative director shall notify the agency when an order adopting the schedule is issued.

(b) Procedures for Amending Bail Forfeiture Schedules.

(1) By July 1 of each year, each agency charged with enforcement under a statute for which a bail forfeiture schedule has been authorized shall forward to the administrative director of the Alaska Court System its written recommendation concerning whether the schedule must be amended to reflect any legislative and regulatory changes, or whether policy considerations warrant revisions. Any proposed amendments shall be accompanied by commentary. The supreme court shall consider the agency's recommendations and determine by October 1 whether to adopt them. If it will be impractical for the court to respond by that date, the administrative director will inform the agency of the date by which the response can be expected. The administrative director shall notify the agency when an order amending the schedule is issued.

(2) In addition to the provisions of paragraph (b)(1), an agency may request a bail forfeiture schedule amendment whenever the need arises.

(3) Any person or agency may request a bail forfeiture schedule amendment at any time by proposing an amendment in writing to the chief justice or to the administrative director.

Rule 43.1. Traffic Bail Forfeiture Schedule.

Pursuant to AS 28.05.151, the following vehicle and traffic offenses are amenable to disposition without court appearance upon payment and forfeiture of the bail amounts listed. If a person charged with one of these offenses appears in court and is convicted, the penalty imposed for the offense may not exceed the bail amount for that offense listed below.

Effective April 30, 1999, the bail amounts listed below are doubled for violations of AS 28 and regulations adopted under AS 28 committed within a highway work zone, as that term is defined in AS 28.90.990 and 13 AAC 40.010(b). Effective May 27, 2006, the bail amounts listed below are doubled for violations of AS 28 and regulations adopted under AS 28 committed within a traffic safety corridor, as that term is defined in AS 28.90.990.

Pursuant to AS 28.15.131 and 13 AAC 04.008, a citation for an offense listed as "Corr" must be dismissed (or voided) if proof of correction is presented to an inspection official within the time allowed. If the required repair is not made, the offense may be disposed of without court appearance upon payment and forfeiture of the bail amount listed.

Effective August 27, 1998, as a condition of the disposition of an offense without appearance, the defendant shall pay the surcharge prescribed in AS 12.55.039 in addition to the bail forfeiture amount listed below. A court may allow a defendant who is unable to pay the surcharge to perform community work under AS 12.55.055(c) in lieu of the surcharge. The surcharge must be deposited into the general fund in a separate account designated for such surcharges.

Effective September 1, 2003, pursuant to AS 28.05.151(e), an offense listed on this schedule may not be disposed of without court appearance if the offense is in connection with a motor vehicle accident that results in the death of a person.

The maximum bail amount for any of the offenses listed below in which the bail is stated as an amount per mile, per foot, per lamp, per reflector, per tire, or per wheel is the maximum fine allowed by statute for the offense. These maximum amounts are doubled for violations of AS 28 and regulations adopted under AS 28 committed within a highway work zone, as that term is defined in AS 28.90.990 and 13 AAC 40.010(b), or committed within a traffic safety corridor, as that term is defined in AS 28.90.990.

Rule 44. Rulemaking.

(a) Uniform Policy. The supreme court shall make and promulgate rules governing administration of all courts, and practice and procedure in civil and criminal cases in all courts. The rules shall be uniform throughout the Alaska Court System.

(b) Request for Rulemaking. Any person may propose new rules or changes in present rules to the supreme court. Each proposal must:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) include any language proposed for change;
- (3) include the reason for the suggested rule or change; and
- (4) be submitted to the court rules attorney at the Anchorage Office of the Administrative Director of Courts.

The court rules attorney shall review each proposal. If the proposal is unclear or in need of further documentation, the rules attorney shall contact the person submitting the proposal and seek clarification.

(c) Major or Minor Change. The rules attorney shall determine whether a proposal is a major or minor rule change. All proposals for new rules and all proposals affecting substantial rights of litigants are major. Minor rules changes are those which are technical in nature.

(d) Minor Change. The rules attorney shall submit a minor rules change proposal directly to the supreme court along with a summary of the proposal, any relevant background information, and proposed orders in both plain text and legislative form. The chief justice shall calendar a review of the proposal at an appropriate administrative conference. Following review, the supreme court may adopt or reject the proposal, refer it to a rules committee for review, or assign it to the rules attorney for further research or review.

(e) Major Change. The rules attorney shall refer major rules change proposals to the appropriate rules committee. The committee shall review the proposal, determine if a draft should be circulated to the bar or other interested persons for comment, and determine whether to support or oppose the change. If no circulation was made, the reason for this decision shall be conveyed to the supreme court when the rules proposal is referred to the court for consideration. The rules attorney shall prepare a summary of the proposal, the committee's recommendation, any other relevant background information, and proposed orders in both plain text and legislative form for the court's consideration. The chief justice shall calendar a review of proposals that a rules committee recommends at an appropriate administrative conference. Following review, the supreme court may adopt or reject the proposal in whole or in part, refer the proposal to the same or a different committee for further study, direct circulation for comment, or assign the proposal to the rules attorney for further research or review.

(f) Public Information. The following material in rule change files is public information and is available for review by members of the public upon request, unless otherwise ordered by the court:

- (1) original rule change proposals;
- (2) materials considered by the rules committees, including proposal drafts, memoranda submitted to or prepared by the committee, and correspondence;
- (3) meeting minutes;
- (4) rules committee summaries circulated to members of the Alaska Bar Association or other persons for comment, and any comments received;
- (5) referral memoranda presented to the supreme court by the court rules attorney, along with any supporting materials and proposed orders; and
- (6) final supreme court orders adopted in response to rule change proposals.

(g) Standing Rules Committees. The chief justice shall establish standing rules committees to review proposals for amendments to the Rules of Court, except that the administrative director shall review proposals to amend the Administrative Rules. All committees shall receive major rules change proposals from the rules attorney or the supreme court. In addition, the rules committees shall carry on a continuous study of the operation and effect of the rules of procedure and administration. The rules committees shall periodically recommend rules changes to the supreme court if the changes promote: 1) simplicity in procedure; 2) fairness in administration; 3) the just determination of litigation; and 4) the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay.

(h) Appointment. The chief justice shall appoint members of the judiciary, Alaska Bar Association, and other qualified persons to serve on the rules committees. Nominees shall be considered from any source, but solicitation for nominee recommendations shall also be made to the board of governors of the state bar association and the statewide court clerks conference. Where possible, terms of the committee members will be staggered to preserve committee continuity. The members of the committees shall serve without compensation. However, with prior approval, the members may be reimbursed for per diem and travel expenses incident to their duties as members of the committees.

(i) Expedited Rule Action. Whenever the supreme court determines that the immediate promulgation of a procedural or administrative rule is necessary, the court may take any action required by the circumstances. The court shall follow all of the requirements of this rule consistent with meeting the nature of the particular circumstances.

(j) Effective Date. The effective date for each rule change order shall be stated in the order. Normally, the effective date shall be the same as the publisher's distribution date, in order to provide adequate notice to those affected by the rule change. Where this is not practical, the effective date shall be set as determined by the supreme court. When this occurs, the supreme court shall determine what additional notice, if any, shall be provided to those affected by the rule change. Notice of the adopted rules changes shall be posted on the court system's website.

(Adopted by SCO 630 effective September 15, 1985; renumbered by SCO 656 effective September 15, 1985; amended by SCO 858 effective December 16, 1987; and by SCO 1624 effective April 16, 2007)

Rule 45. Concurrent Jurisdiction.

(a) Mandatory Filing. A civil action that falls within the concurrent jurisdiction of the superior court and the district court shall be filed in the district court (except for a petition for injunctive relief under AS 25.35.010 or 25.35.020).

(b) Amount in Controversy. The amount in controversy is first determined by reference to the plaintiff's complaint. Jurisdiction is established by the pleading of claims as they appear at the time of filing of the complaint or other claim. Claims must be pled in good faith. Interest due at the time of filing may be included in the claimed amount. Properly joined claims may be aggregated. When a compulsory counterclaim is filed in an action in excess of district court jurisdiction, the district court judge shall order referral of the case to the superior court. When a permissive counterclaim is filed in an action in excess of district court jurisdiction, the district court judge shall either order referral of the case to the superior court or order severance of the claim to be proceeded with separately.

ALASKA COURT RULES

(c) Transfer by District Court. When it appears from the pleadings that the amount claimed for recovery exceeds $100,000 exclusive of costs, post-filing interest, and attorney's fees, then the district court judge shall upon motion or the court's own motion refer the case to the superior court.

(d) Transfer or Retention by Superior Court. When it appears from the pleadings, filed documents, or any pretrial evidence taken in the case that the amount claimed for recovery does not exceed $100,000 exclusive of costs, post-filing interest, and attorney's fees, then upon motion or the court's own motion the superior court judge shall order transfer of the case to the district court or retain the case and sit as a district court judge pro tem. A specific assignment of the judge to the district court is not required under these circumstances.

(e) Criminal Cases Unaffected. Neither AS 22.10.020(a) nor the subsections of this rule apply to criminal cases.

(Adopted by SCO 659 effective March 15, 1986; amended by SCO 893 effective July 15, 1988; by SCO 1054 effective January 15, 1991; and by SCO 1573 effective nunc pro tunc to September 14, 2004)

The presiding judge of a judicial district shall have authority to make and promulgate administrative orders designated as Presiding Judge Orders. No judicial administrative order may be issued except under the authority of this section.

(b) Uniformity Required. No order shall be promulgated that is inconsistent with the Alaska Statutes or the Alaska Rules of Court. The vesting of all rulemaking authority in the Alaska Supreme Court shall be recognized.

(c) Definitions.

(1) Rules. All (i) judicially imposed requirements (ii) indicating a mandatory course of action or nonaction (iii) not part of any case adjudication or statute, are rules.

(2) Judicial Administrative Orders. All (i) non-adjudicating directives or determinations (ii) effectuating administrative concerns (iii) made and promulgated under Administrative Rule 46, are judicial administrative orders. However, judicial administrative orders consisting solely of appointment or assignment of judicial officers and masters shall not be subject to the requirements of paragraphs (d) and (e) of this rule.

(3) Local Form Orders. All preprinted forms prepared by superior or district court judges and meant to be issued as orders in individual cases and proceedings.

(d) Sanctions. Violations of judicial administrative orders are not punishable under Civil Rule 95. Violators shall first be given actual notice of the order transgressed and provided with a reasonable opportunity to comply. Repeated knowing violations may be punished as contempt.

(e) Adoption.

(1) Filing. All judicial administrative orders shall be filed with the office of the administrative director and shall contain an effective date and where appropriate a termination date.

(2) Review. Within 30 days of filing, all orders shall be reviewed by the office of the administrative director to (i) ensure the statewide policy of uniform rules and practices has been preserved; and (ii) determine any fiscal impact of the order. Orders inconsistent with court system uniform rules or practices or having unusual fiscal impact shall be referred within the review period to the supreme court.

(3) Supreme Court. Judicial administrative orders or local form orders filed with the administrative director under subparagraph (1) are effective as provided by the order, except that the supreme court may disapprove or modify the orders.

(4) Distribution. All judicial administrative orders reviewed by the supreme court, the review order of the supreme court, and such other judicial administrative orders as are selected by the office of the administrative director, shall be sent to the chief justice, the chief judge, the administrative director, the presiding judges, the clerks of court, and the court system law libraries. The clerks of court and the law libraries shall maintain a judicial Administrative Order Book available for public inspection including all of the orders distributed under this subsection grouped according to the appropriate appellate court or judicial district heading.

(5) Sunset Review. The office of the administrative director shall annually conduct a review of all judicial administrative orders distributed under subsection (e)(4) for the purpose of recommending to the promulgating judicial office of the supreme court the termination of superannuated orders.

(f) Local Form Orders. The provisions of this rule except paragraph (d) apply to local form orders. Such orders will be approved by the Supreme Court if they are consistent with the Rules of Court such that the provisions of the order could be validly issued in an individual case.

Attorneys fees are not compensable.

(3) Claims for wrongful rejection of a bid proposal or for an arbitrary and unreasonable cancellation of a bid solicitation must be brought under the Alaska Court System Procurement Guidelines rather than under this rule. Claims of Alaska Court System employees concerning their employment must be brought under the Alaska Court System Personnel Rules rather than under this rule.

(b) Presentation of Claim to Deputy Administrative Director. Every claim must be presented to the deputy administrative director of the Alaska Court System, 303 “K” Street, Anchorage, AK 99501, for approval and payment within six months after the money was expended, the labor, materials, or supplies were furnished, or the services were given to or for the Alaska Court System. This time limitation may be waived by the deputy administrative director for good cause.

(c) Appeal of Disallowance by Deputy Administrative Director.

(1) If a claim is disallowed by the deputy administrative director, the claimant may appeal the decision by delivering written notice of appeal to the administrative director of the Alaska Court System, 303 “K” Street, Anchorage, AK 99501, within 60 days after the claimant receives written notice of disallowance.

(2) A notice of appeal under this paragraph need not follow a particular format. However, the notice must show an intent to have the decision to disallow the claim reviewed, must sufficiently identify the claim to permit review, and must be signed by the claimant.

(3) Upon receipt of a notice of appeal under this paragraph, the claim will be assigned to a hearing officer who is a member of the Alaska Bar Association not currently employed by the Alaska Court System.

(d) Pre-Hearing Procedures.

(1) Within 10 days of the assignment of a hearing officer, the deputy administrative director and the claimant shall transmit all relevant documents and memoranda relating to the claim to the hearing officer. The officer may require that additional documents be also submitted. Copies of all documents submitted to the hearing officer must be also submitted to the other party to the dispute.

(2) The hearing officer shall set a time and place for hearing the appeal upon receipt of the transmittal from the deputy administrative director. The hearing must be held within 60 days of receipt of these documents unless the parties agree to an extension. The hearing officer shall notify the parties of the hearing time and place at least 15 days before the hearing. Either party may request that the hearing date be rescheduled.

(3) Both parties must submit a hearing memorandum to the hearing officer at least five days before the hearing date. SUBJECT: COSTS OF TELEPHONIC HEARINGS

In accordance with Administrative Rule 48(b), the following categories of hearings are exempt from subsection (a) of Administrative Rule 48:

- (1) The court system will pay for telephonic hearing costs whenever a court uses the court system’s contracted teleconference provider’s conference system¹ to allow a party, witness, attorney, or other required participant to be present at a hearing by telephone.
- (2) If the conference system is not available, the party inconvenienced by holding the hearing telephonically must pay the telephone costs, as provided in Administrative Rule 48(a), unless the court determines that assessing telephonic hearing costs to a party would unduly disrupt the conduct of a hearing.

The court is authorized to pay for these calls because the cost is anticipated to be minimal, or the convenience to the court outweighs the cost of the calls.

Rule 50. Media Coverage of Court Proceedings.

(a) Media Coverage. Court proceedings may be covered by the news media under the provisions of this rule. For purposes of this rule, "media" includes the electronic media, still photographers and sketch artists. The rule applies at all times throughout state court facilities and is not limited to courtrooms or to times when court is in session. The rule does not allow media coverage of state court proceedings held in a federal court facility unless coverage is allowed by federal rule.

(b) Application for Court Approval.

(1) The media shall apply for approval of media coverage to the judge presiding over the proceeding to be covered. This application must be made at least 24 hours prior to the proceeding unless good cause is shown for a later application. A timely application will be deemed approved unless the court otherwise orders.

(2) The presiding judge and the area court administrator for each judicial district may designate for each court location a public area in which media coverage may take place without application for prior approval.

(c) Consent of Parties. All parties, including the guardian ad litem, must consent to media coverage of a divorce, dissolution of marriage, domestic violence, child custody and visitation, paternity or other family proceedings.

(d) Prohibition of Coverage. A court may prohibit or terminate media coverage only if: (1) a party does not consent to media coverage under paragraph (c); (2) prohibition of coverage is necessary to ensure the fair administration of justice in any present or future case; or (3) the media fails to comply with reasonable restrictions issued under paragraph (e).

(e) Restrictions on Coverage.

(1) A victim of a sexual offense may not be photographed, filmed, videotaped or sketched without the consent of the court and victim.

(2) Jurors may not be photographed, filmed or videotaped at any time during the proceedings.

(3) The court may impose reasonable restrictions on the time, place or manner of media coverage in a particular case. Any restrictions must be stated on the record, and must be reasonably related and narrowly drawn by the least restrictive means to: (i) control the conduct of proceedings before the court; (ii) ensure decorum and prevent distractions; (iii) protect the reasonable privacy interests of a minor or any other person; or (iv) ensure the fair administration of justice in pending or future cases.

(4) The administrative director of the Alaska Court System may establish by administrative bulletin reasonable statewide procedures and standards for media coverage of judicial proceedings.

(f) Determination of Disruptive Activity. Photographing, filming, videotaping and sketching by anyone other than news media requires a prior written determination by the presiding judge of the judicial district that the activity is not disruptive. In addition, such activity must comply with the other provisions of this rule.

(g) Challenge to Denial of Coverage.

(1) A media organization for which coverage has been denied or restricted may request in writing that the trial court reconsider its ruling. The request may be made by an officer or employee of the media organization, AS 22.20.040 notwithstanding, may be made in the form of a letter to the judge, must state the reasons why media coverage should be allowed, and must be served on all parties to the case pursuant to Civil Rule 5. The parties may submit memoranda in response to such a request only if asked to do so by the judge.

(2) If the request is denied, the media organization may petition for review pursuant to the Appellate Rules. AS 22.20.040 applies to any such petition for review.

(h) Suspension of Media Privileges. If the judge presiding at a proceeding determines that an individual or organization has violated any provision of the media plan, the judge may recommend to the administrative director that the individual's or organization's media coverage privileges be suspended for a period of up to one year. The judge shall notify the individual or organization by certified mail of the recommendation and the reasons which support it. The individual or organization has five working days from receipt of the notice to respond in writing to the administrative director. Note: The administrative bulletin referred to in subparagraph (e)(4) is Bulletin No. 45. It begins on the following page.

ALASKA COURT SYSTEM
OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTOR
ADMINISTRATIVE BULLETIN NO. 45

This administrative bulletin is adopted pursuant to Administrative Rule 50(e) (4) and applies to any media coverage allowed under Administrative Rule 50.

1. Number of Cameras. Not more than two portable television cameras (or 16mm sound or film cameras), operated by not more than one camera operator each, will be permitted in a courtroom or adjacent areas in any trial court proceeding or during a recess in the proceeding. A judge may allow only one such camera operated by one camera operator if the judge determines that the courtroom size warrants this limitation. In Anchorage, not more than one such camera operated by one camera operator is permitted in the hearing room adjacent to the traffic courtroom on the first floor of the “old” court building and in Courtrooms “B”, “D”, “J”, and “District Courtroom 10” in the “new” court building, unless the judge presiding at a proceeding held in one of these rooms specifically authorizes an additional camera and operator. Not more than two television cameras (or 16mm sound or film cameras), operated by not more than one camera operator each, will be permitted in a courtroom or adjacent areas in any court of appeals or supreme court proceeding or during a recess in the proceeding. These provisions do not apply to a courtroom which the administrative director has designated as a media courtroom.
2. Number of Photographers. Not more than two photographers operating not more than two still cameras each will be permitted in a courtroom or adjacent areas in any judicial proceeding or during a recess in the proceeding. These provisions do not apply to a courtroom which the administrative director has designated as a media courtroom.
3. Number of Audio Systems for Radio Broadcast. Not more than two audio systems for radio broadcast purposes will be permitted in a courtroom or adjacent areas in any proceeding or during a recess in the proceeding in a trial court, the court of appeals, or the supreme court. These provisions do not apply to a courtroom which the administrative director has designated as a media courtroom.
4. Audio Pickup. Audio pickup for all media purposes must be made from existing audio systems present in the court facility. The court will provide audio connections for the media at microphone level output.
5. Pooling. “Pooling” arrangements among the media required by these limitations on equipment and personnel are the sole responsibility of the media without resort to the court or court personnel to mediate any dispute as to the appropriate media representative or equipment authorized to cover a particular proceeding. In the absence of media agreement on disputed equipment or personnel issues, the court may exclude all contesting media from a proceeding.
6. Audio Recording. Audio recording of court proceedings are permitted in all court proceedings open to the public, unless the judge presiding at the proceeding determines that the equipment produces a distracting sound or is otherwise obtrusive.
7. Sound and Light Criteria.
 - (a) Type of Television and Audio Equipment Allowed. Only television and audio equipment which does not produce distracting sound or light may be used to cover judicial proceedings. If the judge presiding at a proceeding determines on motion of the parties or on the judge’s own motion that the equipment produces distracting sound or light, the judge may order coverage to cease until the distraction has been eliminated. No artificial lighting device of any kind may be employed in connection with a television camera, and no camera may give any indication of whether it is or is not operating, such as by use of a red light to note operational status.
 - (b) Type of Photography Equipment Allowed. Electronic flash or flash cubes, as well as motorized cameras which produce distracting sound, are prohibited from use in any proceeding.
8. Location of Equipment and Personnel.
 - (a) Television Equipment. Television camera equipment must be positioned in a location or locations in the courtroom or adjacent areas as designated by the judge presiding at the proceeding or the judge’s designee.
 - (b) Still Photograph. A still camera photographer shall position himself or herself in a location in the courtroom or adjacent areas as designated by the judge presiding at the proceeding or the judge’s designee, and shall take photographs only from that location. The photographer’s movements while taking pictures must be unobtrusive, and he or she should not, for example, assume body positions which would be inappropriate for other spectators.

- (c) Radio Broadcast Audio Equipment. Radio broadcast audio equipment must be positioned in a location or locations in the courtroom or adjacent areas as designated by the judge presiding at the proceeding or the judge's designee.
9. Movement of Equipment During Proceedings. Television and audio equipment and tripod-mounted still cameras must not be placed in or removed from the courtroom except prior to commencement or after adjournment of proceedings each day, or during a recess.
10. Conference of Counsel. To protect the attorney-client privilege and the effective right to counsel, there may be no broadcast of conferences which occur in the courtroom or the court facility between attorneys and their clients, between co-counsel of a client, or between counsel and the judge held at the bench. As a further precaution, due to the sensitivity of courtroom recording equipment, the judge presiding at the proceeding may inform counsel at the outset of the proceeding that the court will entertain requests from counsel to go off record for attorney-client conferences.
11. Behavior and Dress. Media representatives are expected to present a neat appearance in keeping with the dignity of the proceedings and be sufficiently familiar with court proceedings to conduct themselves so as not to interfere with the dignity of the proceedings, or to distract counsel or the court.
12. Credentials. Media coverage under this plan is allowed only by members of the working press and other media representatives. Media representatives must present their credentials upon request. Before coverage will be allowed, media representatives shall obtain identification from the area court administrator for the judicial district or the clerk of court in which the proceeding occurs after presenting such credentials as may be requested. Identification must be worn at all times when covering judicial proceedings.
13. Procedures for Obtaining Approval.
- (a) Request to Cover a Trial Court Proceeding. Media personnel desiring to cover a proceeding before a trial court must submit an application to the judge presiding at the proceeding on a form provided by the area court administrator's office. If no judge has been assigned to the proceeding the application must be submitted to the area court administrator and will be forwarded to the judge immediately after assignment is made.
- (b) Request to Cover Appellate Procedures. Media personnel desiring to cover a supreme court or court of appeals proceeding shall submit a request to the court through the office of the clerk of the appellate courts on a form to be provided by the appellate clerk's office.
14. The judge presiding over a proceeding may alter the foregoing provisions of this bulletin for that particular proceeding upon a showing of good cause.
15. Liaison. The area court administrator shall maintain communication with media representatives with respect to coverage of trial court proceedings to ensure smooth working relationships. The clerk of the appellate courts shall maintain this communication with respect to coverage of supreme court or court of appeals proceedings.
